Generations Of Fans Mourn Elvis

Doctors Deny Death Linked To Drugs

KING IS DEAD: Elvis Presley, the one-time truck driver who rose to become the acknowledged king of rock 'n' roll music, died Tuesday at the age of 42 in Memphis, Tenn. Doctors said his death was the result of a heart attack. (AP Wirephoto)

By LEE SEAGO
Associated Press Writer
MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP) — Fans of yesterday and today, old and young, teenyboppers and their middle-aged mothers, gathered today on Elvis Presley's doorstep, not to scream and cheer but to mourn. Their king is dead.

Elvis Aron Presley, the sexy Mississippi truck driver who launched his own record career and became America's greatest king of rock 'n' roll, died Tuesday afternoon of a heart ailment. He was 42.

About 75 people spent the night outside the gates of Graceland mansion, some lying on pillows and blankets, most just standing around.

At one point the gates opened, several cars came out, and the crowd swarmed around taking pictures and trying to get autographs. One of the cars carried Vester Presley, an uncle who was chief of security, and his wife.

Vester Presley said Elvis' former wife, Priscilla, whom he divorced in 1973, arrived at the mansion at about 3 a.m.

"She is taking it hard. She is in a total state of shock," he said.

Another group of about 30 people spent the night outside the Memphis Funeral Home where Presley's body was taken, said night supervisor Jim Stewart.

He said the switchboard received calls from all 50 states and from as far away as Guam and Johannesburg, South Africa.

"Everybody wanted to know where to send flowers," Stewart said.

Vester Presley said the singer's father, Vernon Presley, decided to open the casket for public viewing at Graceland from 3 p.m. to 5 p.m.

Dr. George Nichopoulos, long-time physician to the swivel-hipped, throaty baritone who was known as the "King of Rock 'n' Roll," said an autopsy revealed a constriction in one of the main arteries to the heart, which restricted blood flow and brought on a heart attack.

"What caused it? Any one of a number of things," he said.

Nichopoulos said his patient, who carried about 175 pounds on a six-foot frame as a young man but recently had been reported grossly overweight, had been taking a number of appetite depressants, but did not have a drug problem. Dr. Jerry Francisco, the Shelby County medical examiner, discounted rumors that Presley, who had been a virtual recluse at his white-columned Graceland mansion for 20 years, had suffered from a drug problem.

"There was no indication of drug abuse at all," Francisco said. "I was aware of the rumors and that is why I mention it."

He said the only evidence he found of drugs in the autopsy involved those Presley was taking for mild hypertension and a colon problem.

Francisco said there would have been visible needle tracks if illegal drugs were involved.

Delbert "Sonny" West, who was a Presley bodyguard for 16 years, said in Chicago just hours before Presley died that the singer was heavily addicted to drugs and haunted by fears that drove him into seclusion.

West was interviewed by

Chicago Sun-Times columnist Bob Greene about the recently released book, "Elvis: What Happened?" that West and two other former bodyguards have written about Presley.

"He was on pills all day long, and he would give himself shots in the arm or the leg with those little plastic syringes," West said in the interview. "He would have us give him shots in the rear end. We prayed for this man many times. His drug habit is so severe that I'm convinced he is in danger of losing his life."

Presley, whose recording of "Hearbreak Hotel" helped to put him on top of the entertainment world 21 years ago, was discovered unconscious at Graceland in suburban Memphis on Tuesday afternoon. Presley was found dressed in pajamas and lying face-up in the red-carpeted bathroom next to his second-floor bedroom.

He was taken to Baptist Hospital in a Fire Department ambulance while Nichopoulos and emergency medical technicians worked to revive him.

"Come on Presley, breathe. Breathe for me," Nichopoulos implored repeatedly as the ambulance sped to the hospital.

But he added, "We knew he

Supt. Richard F. Helzer of the Benton Harbor Area Schools last night informally advised members of the board of education that he is resigning the superintendency effective Dec. 2.

He said his formal letter of resignation would arrive at the district offices today. Helzer told the Herald-Palladium this morning he is leaving the educational field to accept the post of vice president with Flister & Clements Realtors, an arawake realty firm that has its headquarters in St. Joseph.

He said his new position gives him the opportunity to enter a new career field, after what he said he feels has been a successful 20 years in the educational field. He said 20 years in education as a teacher and administrator have given him vested rights in the state educational pension program.

"The Benton Harbor district has been good to me," he stated this morning, "and the kind of experiences I gained here have been invaluable in my career. Because of the experience here, I have been offered a number of other opportunities in the educational field."

He said he and his wife, natives of eastern Michigan, like this community and like the opportunity of starting a second career here.

Helzer was given a new five-year contract as superintendent of Benton Harbor schools in May of this year, at a salary of $37,500. At his own suggestion, he was to take a salary cut from $38,900 because of the district's tightened financial condition. The contract provided a possible 10 per cent merit increase, at the discretion of the board, in the following years of the contract.

Helzer came to the Benton Harbor district in 1972 as an assistant superintendent, and was advanced to the top position in January of 1974. He succeeded Ray Sreboth, who resigned to become superintendent of the Berrien County Intermediate school district.

The real estate field will not be entirely new to Helzer. He said sold real estate summers and part-time for five years during his early years as a teacher in the Detroit area.

Helzer and his wife and three children live in Fairplain.

Travel Chief Elected

LANSING, Mich. (AP) — Leonard Barnes of Pleasant Ridge, editor of Michigan Motor News, has been elected chairman of the Michigan Travel Commission. Barnes, of the Automobile Club of Michigan, was appointed to the commission in 1976. Wesley Tobean of North Muskegon, president of the West Michigan Tourist Association of Grand Rapids, was elected vice chairman.

JUDGE FRANK JOHNSON
Carter, Bell Agree

Dixie Judge May Be Next FBI Chief

By MARGARET GENTRY
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — President Carter plans to nominate Frank Johnson, a deep South judge with a strong civil rights record, as the next director of the FBI, knowledgeable administration sources say.

The White House was expected to announce today that Carter will send Johnson's name to the Senate, which must confirm his selection. The choice ends a seven-month search for a director to take charge of the bureau and its 8,000 agents.

Carter and Atty. Gen. Griffin Bell chose the 58-year-old federal district judge to succeed Clarence M. Kelley after rejecting four candidates recommended by a presidentially-appointed search committee, the sources said.

By choosing Johnson, a Republican, Carter and Bell may have a candidate who can sail through the Senate hearings with little, if any opposition.

But Sen. James O. Eastland, D-Miss., chairman of the Judiciary Committee that will first consider Johnson's nomination, would not comment Tuesday night.

"I know the whole score," Eastland said, "and I don't leak stories. I have no comment."

Johnson's nomination is certain to please civil rights groups who assailed the bureau in the 1960s for allegedly ignoring beatings of black activists in the South.

That charge came while J. Edgar Hoover, the director, was carrying out a secret campaign to discredit the movement's

Since then, civil rights groups have continued to criticize the FBI for failing to add blacks and other minorities to the ranks of agents in any great numbers.

Johnson's record seems to show a quality Bell particularly sought in an FBI director. The attorney general had said he wanted someone strong enough to control "the dominant personalities" in the bureau's hierarchy.

While Kelley was respected for his sincerity and good intentions, he was often criticized by congressmen and others who deal with the bureau for being too weak to control the old Hoover hands still holding powerful FBI jobs.

Kelley is retiring Jan. 1. His announcement last winter that he would step down followed criticism by Carter during his campaign for the presidency.

Morale is low in the agency. One former FBI man faces a criminal trial while other officials — both present and former — remain under investigation for allegedly illegal intelligence gathering activities in the late 1960s and early 1970s.

Appointed a federal judge in Alabama in 1955, Johnson has handed numerous victories to civil rights activists pressing suits before his court.

His judicial record has earned him bitter enemies in his home state, chief among them Gov. George C. Wallace, his one-time law school classmate.

Often the target of violent threats, because of his civil rights record, Johnson has required special forces of federal marshals as bodyguards.

In one of his best-known decisions, he signed the original order integrating the University of Alabama in the 1960s, a decision that led to Wallace's much publicized "stand in the

Compassion Doesn't Alter The Legal Facts

It is possible to have compassion for Antoinette Slovik, widow of the only American GI executed for desertion during World War II, and at the same time recognize that the legal grounds for her appeal to the Army for relief were faulty.

Mrs. Slovik, destitute and confined to a wheelchair, plainly had based her appeal on hopes that she might yet collect her husband's life insurance. With accrued interest, the amount in question was close to $70,000.

The fact that Slovik, of all the thousands who deserted during the course of the war, was the only one executed does give credence to her argument that he was singled out as an example to others. However arguable that point might be — and the Army in its review came close to admitting as much — it does not change one fundamental fact.

Under law, no soldier convicted of desertion is entitled to his benefits.

Even if Private Slovik had not been executed, he still would not have been eligible for his insurance.

A second request by Mrs. Slovik, also rejected, is not so clear-cut. She had requested that his remains be removed from an unmarked grave in France. Consideration for her feelings in that matter should have overruled any objections the Army might have.

Slovik admitted to twice deserting under combat during one of the most crucial campaigns of the war — the Battle of the Bulge. Historical revisionists should not try to make more of him than he was.

But the lady who has carried a heavy burden for more than three decades for an act over which she had no control is not beyond the compassion of private citizens in her twilight years. Any funds generated in the Slovik case should be in her name, not his.

Future Of Capitalism Under Study In Chicago

Forty-two years ago, Sir Alan Patrick Herbert wrote in a letter to the Electors of Oxford University: "They tell us that capitalism is doomed. Karl Marx, I believe, made the same announcement 80 years ago. He may still be right, but the old clock ticks on." In the United States, at least, the old capitalist clock continues to tick. Despite increasing government regulation of the private sector and evidence of growing distrust of big business, public opinion polls indicate that in principle at least the majority of Americans support the free enterprise system and oppose its replacement by the kind of democratic socialism found in Sweden.

To build on the support for what is left of the free enterprise system, the National Association of Manufacturers and the National Federation of Independent Business are co-sponsoring the first National Conference on Economic Education and the Future of Capitalism in Chicago beginning on Sunday, Aug. 21. The stated purpose of the three-day conference is to "bring together representatives of business, education and the media to review current program efforts and opportunities for improved effectiveness."

The theory behind this and the spate of other economic education efforts, Paul H. Weaver points out in the June issue of Fortune magazine, "is that hostility to business results from lack of knowledge about it and that information will change people's minds."

One of the conference sessions will deal with economic education in the schools, in the mass media and through "leadership elites." That enlightenment in these areas is needed is self-evident, businessmen assert. They often cite an Opinion Research Corporation poll conducted in 1974 as proof that the public has a totally erroneous view of corporate profits. That poll showed that Americans who were surveyed estimated corporate profits to be 25 per cent higher than they actually were that year.

Henry Ford II, chairman of the Ford Motor Co., has been accusing certain "leadership elites" of distorting or ignoring the benefits that society derives from capitalism and the free enterprise system. In his letter of resignation as a trustee of the Ford Foundation early this year, Ford complained: "A significant portion of the abundance created by U.S. business enables the foundation and like institutions to carry on their work.... It is hard to discern recognition of this understanding of this in many of the institutions, particularly the universities, that are the beneficiaries of the foundation's grant programs." Economic education is designed to promote such understanding.

Auto Ripoff On Turnpike Charged By BH Woman

Editor,

I'm telling this so people can know the kind of things that really happen on the Pennsylvania Turnpike.

Last month my husband, three of my children, a friend and I drove my 1967 Oldsmobile to Norristown, Pa. My sister, Edna Henry, lived there.

Editor's Mailbag

She was sick with diabetes and wanted to move back to Benton Harbor.

We loaded Edna's things in a U-Haul trailer, attached it to my car and left Norristown about noon Aug. 1. We stopped for gas on the Pennsylvania Turnpike, and the attendant told us the car's water pump was leaking. He said he couldn't fix it there on the turnpike. The car was running fine, but we didn't want to break down on the turnpike, so we took the next exit and went to a garage in Breezewood, Pa.

A mechanic said he'd replace the water pump for $24. When he was finished he tried to charge us $82 because the job took so long he told us. I said I didn't have that much money, and he got mad and said he'd put the old pump back on, but that he'd have to charge $12 an hour labor just to do that. I said he should have to replace our pump for free. He got madder and cussed.

It took that man five hours to put the new pump on, but when it came to putting ours back on it only took him 15 minutes. He just threw it up there on the engine. I thought "This man may be trying to do something to us." We didn't pay him a cent. Later, we found out the pump bolts hadn't been tightened, they were just hanging up there, and the gasket hadn't been sealed.

We drove off. About 10 miles down the road the car's "Hot" light came on. It was dark and we were in heavy traffic back on the turnpike, big trucks were beside and in front of us, and before we could slow down clouds of white smoke were pouring from the front of the car, and we couldn't see a thing. We came close to having a wreck.

MRS. BIRDIE MILES Describes Turnpike Ordeal

We pulled off the road but the car wouldn't start again so we spent the rest of the night in the car with my sick sister.

Next morning a man in a wrecker towed our car to Bedford, Pa. A mechanic who owned a garage there looked at the car and said the head gasket was blown and some wires were burned. He told us it would cost $350, plus more for labor, to fix the car. I bought the car here in Benton Harbor last month for $225, and paid $50 more to put it into good running order. And we sure didn't have $350, so we walked three or four miles into town.

I talked to the police. They were real nice but couldn't help. They said the man was a rip-off man who charged so much for repairs that he was able to hold an auction every six months to sell the cars he got from people like me.

The police got us a room in a motel for free and some meal tickets. People from a church also helped out.

I called home for money, but nobody had that kind of money. My sister brought a car from Benton Harbor to pick us up. An aunt from Benton Harbor came too, with her car for us. My mother rode with her.

We went back to the garage (See page 31, column 1)

Congress Takes Recess Again

WASHINGTON — Poor President Carter. Even when he does his level best to curry favor with Congress, he winds up putting his foot in his mouth.

He knows how touchy the Capitol Hill crowd is about its collective image, what with the backdoor pay raise, the Korean scandal, and other assorted crosses to bear. He understands that House and Senate members bridle at the slightest suggestion that they do not earn their keep.

And with elaborate caution, the president has for months gone to great pains to describe the August recess of Congress as a "summer home work period," lest anyone suspect he was accusing the members of goofing off.

So what happens? No less an authority than Senate Majority Whip Alan Cranston cheerfully acknowledges that the August recess is a plain, old-fashioned "vacation."

It's all those other evacuations from Washington that one is not supposed to confuse with "recesses" or "vacations," Cranston says. Like the week-long departure over the Fourth of July. Or the similar exodus over Easter. Or the combined Lincoln-Washington birthday break. Or Christmas. Or Thanksgiving. Etc. etc.

These little breaks in the daily drudgery, which have eaten up more than four work weeks since Congress assembled in January, are known in the Senate as "non-legislative periods." In the House, the euphemism is "district home work periods."

And heaven help the commentator with the temerity to suggest even a single member of Congress might use such escapes from Washington to catch up on his sleep, or otherwise enjoy himself. No sir. The sunbathers which turn up on selected solons following each congressional recess were, always earned, we are told, on exhausting hikes through the old district in search of constituents to serve.

This year, Congress is outdoing itself. Not only has it traipsed off for all the usual "district home work periods," plus the current month-long August recess, it is also hell-bent on quitting for the year in October.

That's right — October. The first week in October if at all possible, but no later than Oct. 22. Which means Congress will have worked in Washington no more than seven or eight months all year, at a time when there is a new administration and a huge load of legislative business.

Although Carter has carefully kept his mouth shut about this preposterous congressional schedule, some White House aides are openly irked. A number of administration programs and bills, ranging from airline deregulation to Social Security reform, will be pushed over into the next session because of the early adjournment date.

"I can't ever remember a time when Congress went home before December in a non-election year," said one administration aide who used to work on Capitol Hill.

House leadership sources blame Senate Majority Leader Robert C. Byrd for fixing and insisting upon the October adjournment. The original House schedule for 1977, they note, called for sessions through mid-December. Senate sources, on the other hand, claim House Speaker Tip O'Neill was just as anxious as Byrd to quit in October.

What is really going on is that the members of both the Senate and House want to go home to campaign — a year before the next election — no matter what the cost in postponed action on crucial legislation.

Well, that's just ducky. Maybe we ought to let them live off their campaign funds the last two or three months of the year instead of the $57,500 salaries the taxpayers were bled into providing, on the grounds that service in Congress is such an onerous, full-time profession these days.

At the rate things are presently going, it won't be long before the politicians spend more time running for Congress than they do serving in it. Enough is enough.

Walter's Handy With 1-Liners

WASHINGTON — Vice President Walter Mondale, tongue in cheek, apologized to the American Bar Association last week in Chicago for President Carter's campaign remark that people should vote for him because he wasn't a lawyer.

Actually, Mondale said, the Carter family is really into the law. Amy never misses the Perry Mason reruns, he said, and Billy Carter "spends a lot of time at the bar."

In addition, the White House tennis area has now been dubbed "The Supreme Court," Ho, ho.

During a gospel meeting in Ida Grove, Iowa, Charles Colson reported that he still sees former President Nixon, Colson, who served seven months in prison for his part in Watergate, said he hoped some day to minister to Nixon. He didn't say why. Nixon, remember, dismissed Colson as a "name-dropper" in the Watergate tapes.

Colson now preaches across the country with former Sen. Harold Hughes of Iowa on behalf of the Fellowship Foundation, a Washington-based fundamentalist religious organization.

Supreme Court Chief Justice Warren Burger has been surprisingly solicitous of ailing William O. Douglas since Douglas retired from the bench, coming by to visit him often. Burger's kindness is unexpected, since the two were never close personally while Douglas was on the bench, and their legal and political philosophies are far apart.

Former Secretary of State Henry Kissinger has agreed to speak at the Young Americans for Freedom convention in New York City Aug. 24-26, according to the YAF. That's the ultra-conservative organization for young Republicans whose slogan is "freedom not socialism." It is not a group with whom Kissinger would have been comfortable in the past. What does it mean?

The National Organization for Women has launched a campaign to persuade major educational, religious, professional and union organizations to boycott all states which have not ratified the Equal Rights Amendment, by refusing to hold conventions there. So far, 29 large groups have pledged to stay away from unratified states, which include within them many of the major convention cities such as Miami and Chicago.

The Federal government has given out more than 3.5 million children's coloring books since 1971. It's a project of the Drug Enforcement Administration, and the idea is to warn kids off drugs in a pleasant way while they color in the pictures.

The Smithsonian Institution's new Air and Space Museum, which opened last year has become the most popular museum attraction for tourists in town. This year, it has already clocked nearly five million visitors. By contrast, the older Museum of Natural History and Museum of History and Technology have attracted only about half that number.

The Air and Space Museum's shop reportedly does a brisk $10,000-a-day in business, mostly in $5 souvenir items. The public may not be as blasé about our achievements in space as popularly supposed.

Pay Panel Trounced By Voters In Benton

By RALPH LUTZ
Staff Writer

Benton township residents by a margin of nearly 20 to 1 voted Tuesday to repeal an ordinance providing for an appointed compensation commission to set salaries of elected township officials.

The outcome of the special election means residents will continue to approve or reject elected officials' salaries at annual meetings.

Unofficial returns show that 1,431 voted to repeal the compensation commission ordinance, only 75 voted to retain it. Some 14 per cent of the township's 10,400 registered voters went to the polls.

The election was petitioned for by residents after the ordinance was enacted last March by the board of trustees.

Supervisor Catheryn Sirk, who supported the ordinance, said she had no regrets over the outcome of the election. Mrs. Sirk said the people went to the polls, and the democratic process is what counts. She called the voter turnout good for a special election.

The election was petitioned for by a group called Concerned Citizens and Taxpayers of Benton township, headed by Mrs. Cecilia Burke and Frank Graziano. Neither was present at the regular township board meeting when the results were reported last night.

The compensation commission ordinance was passed March 15 by a 5 to 1 vote of the township board of trustees with Treasurer Ken Malkin dissenting. The ordinance provided for appointment of a five-member commission which would set pay of salaried elected officials effective in 1978.

Voting to approve the ordinance were Clerk Larry Trail and Trustees Dave Hanner, Nora Jefferson, Margaret Crisall and Arnold Leonard. Supervisor Sirk was absent, but in later votes supported the ordinance.

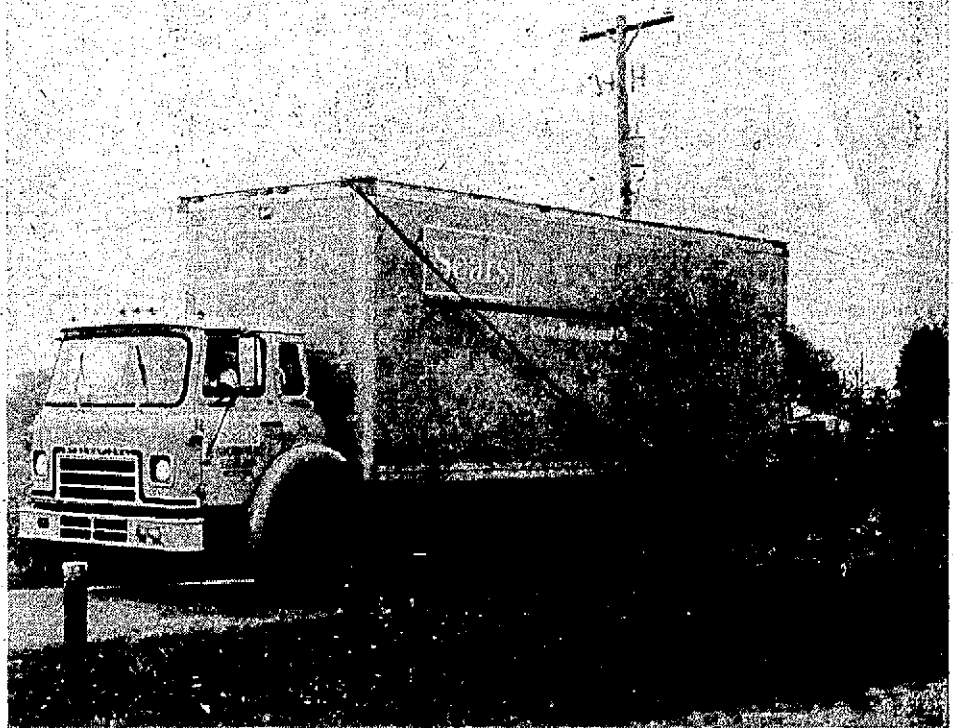

On April 2 at the annual township meeting, citizens turned down pay increases of 40 per cent for the supervisor and 20 per cent each for the clerk and treasurer.

The petitions calling for the referendum were filed May 23.

An attempt was made in Benton Harbor to establish a compensation commission to set salaries of elected officials in 1975. The commission returned a recommendation of a $25,000 salary for then Mayor Charles F. Joseph. But the commission's actions were declared invalid because the commission had not been appointed according to provisions of state law.

The proposition to repeal the Benton township ordinance was overwhelming support in all 10 precincts and among absentee voters. The largest margin was 251 to 0 in precinct 3, Fairplain East school.

The vote to repeal the ordinance was 118-12, precinct 1, Brighton school; 109-8, precinct 2, Hull school; 109-3, precinct 4, Lafayette school; 144-6, precinct 5, Martindale school; 138-6, precinct 6, Pearl school; 142-15, precinct 7, Sorter school; 111-10, precinct 8, Johnson school; 127-7, precinct 9, Fairplain Northeast school; 137-2, precinct 10, North Shore school; and 38-4 among absentee voters.

BH Rec Center Status Report Says Startup Date Still Unclear

By MIKE WYNGARDEN
Staff Writer

The $2.2 million Benton Harbor recreation center may not be put into use during the 1977-1978 school year, a committee made up of Benton Harbor school board members reported last night.

The committee also charged the City of Benton Harbor is violating "both the spirit and intent" of agreements between the city and the schools to operate the center.

The center, located behind Benton Harbor high school, has been standing idle since construction was completed last December because Benton Harbor area schools and the City of Benton Harbor have not been able to determine how operating and equipment costs for the center will be paid.

City and school officials, who have been meeting recently to negotiate operating and equipment costs, had hoped to reach an agreement to get the center in operation by September.

"There is obviously no way the recreation center can be open for operation, in September, even if we had reached an agreement with the city on operation of the recreation center," the committee's status report said. "It remains unclear at this date if the center can open in school year 1977-1978."

Members of the school board's recreation committee, which presented the center status report, are Frank Culby, Mrs. Janet Scott and E.E. (Bill) Bentley, board president.

The committee also charged in its report that the city "has violated both the spirit and the letter of the agreements (between the school district and the city) which were signed three years ago. The situation is unique because the current city administration and elected officials had little to do with making the promises which they are now breaking," the report said.

"The board took no action on the committee's report."

Melvin Farmer Jr., who is both Benton Harbor city manager and a school board member, said after the meeting he had not had a chance to read the committee's entire report, but said "For the record, there's a bunch of inaccuracies in there."

"Our problem, at the base level, is money," the report stated. "The city, three years ago, did not anticipate the precarious financial situation from which it has suffered recently."

Operating costs for the center have been estimated at about $190,000 a year and about $55,000 is needed for purchase of equipment, according to Larry Nielsen, Benton Harbor recreation director.

Woman Acquitted In Fugitive Case

By LARRY MACINTYRE
Staff Writer

Judge Leo Cook issued a directed verdict of acquittal yesterday after the prosecution presented its case in the Berrien District court jury trial of Geraldine Milliken, 31, on a charge of harboring a fugitive from the county jail.

She was accused of harboring Dallas M. Taylor in her Coloma township apartment on April 24, the day after Taylor and three other prisoners broke out of the jail through a second floor window.

The prosecution's case was presented by summer legal intern Marikaye Flyke, a third year law student from Valparaiso (Ind.) law school.

Miss Flyke said two women testifying for the prosecution told the court they could not recall seeing Dallas Taylor in the defendant's apartment at 2062 Paw Paw Lake road although they did see him in the area.

She said the testimony differed from that given by the women in a previous trial in June and was not expected by the prosecution.

The directed verdict came on the motion of Atty. F. Ronald Postell of Watervliet who represented Geraldine Milliken.

The witnesses, Barbara Moore and Marge Smith, lived in neighboring apartments to one Geraldine Milliken shared in April with Marlene Showan. Geraldine Milliken presently lists her address as 5100 Hagar Shore apartments, Coloma.

Miss Flyke said testimony from the two neighbors in June resulted in a guilty verdict against Marlene Showan on the same charge.

She said that at the June non-jury trial before Judge Ronald J. Taylor, the neighbors testified they saw Dallas Taylor run out the back door of the defendant's apartment when police cars pulled up in front.

The neighbors also testified that they saw both Marlene Showan and Geraldine Milliken in the apartment just after Taylor fled, Miss Flyke said.

Taylor was captured by Coloma township police in a field behind the apartments.

Geraldine Milliken was originally charged with conspiracy to harbor a fugitive, a one year misdemeanor. That charge was later dismissed and the lesser charge of harboring a fugitive, a 90 day misdemeanor, was authorized.

Welfare Fraud Fine Is Levied

Helen Jackson, 42, of 823 Superior street, Benton Harbor, was sentenced to pay a fine and costs of $105 yesterday after she pleaded guilty to a reduced charge of welfare fraud under $500 — receiving ADC payments and Social Security at the same time.

The sentence was imposed in Berrien Fifth District court by Judge Ronald J. Taylor.

John N. Fields, assistant prosecutor in charge of the welfare fraud division, said Mrs. Jackson failed to notify the Berrien county Department of Social Services that she was receiving Social Security disability checks from February through October, 1976.

At the same time, she was collecting aid to dependent children payments for two children living with her, Fields said.

She has since made full restitution of $2,546 to the social services department, Fields added.

For that reason, he said, the charge against Mrs. Jackson was reduced from a felony charge of welfare fraud over $500 to the lesser included misdemeanor charge of welfare fraud under $500.

Benton Attorney Robinson Resigns

Benton township Atty. Thomas Robinson Jr. announced last night that he will resign from the post effective Sept. 1.

Robinson, who has served as Benton township attorney for nearly three years, said the resignation is only because of the pressure of other business in his law firm.

Robinson said he will complete legal work now underway for the township, including a hearing tomorrow at Whitehall on the township's suit in federal district court to recover $1.195 million from the U.S. Economic Development administration.

Robinson praised former Supervisor Martin Lane and Supervisor Catheryn Sirk and other township officials. Robinson, a Democrat, replaced Atty. F.A. (Mike) Jones, a Republican, after voters elected a Democratic board.

Supervisor Sirk commended Robinson for his representation of the township, and the attorney received applause at the township board meeting. No replacement was announced.

BH School Board Trims Fraction From '77 Levy

The Benton Harbor board of education last night voted to set the 1977 tax levy at 29.726 mills — a slight decrease from last year caused by an anticipated state grant to the school district which will eliminate collection of the debt retirement millage this year.

This year's tax levy, down .6456 mill from last year, is expected to raise $5,344,901. For a homeowner with a house with a market value of $20,000, the elimination of the .6456 mill debt retirement millage will reduce property taxes by about $6.50, according to Larry Rankens, group director for business and finance.

The board eliminated the debt retirement levy for this year's taxes as a result of an anticipated $58,000 state reimbursement for debt retirement.

The board voted last night to apply for the $58,000 grant. James Caudill, director of communications and information services, said the school district has been notified that it qualifies for the grant.

The school district's acceptance of the grant will require it to reduce its fund reserve for debt retirement and pay off some bonds early, according to Rankens. The school district has built up a reserve of about $250,000, he said.

As of June 30, 1976, the district had a gross bonded indebtedness of $1,318,000, according to Rankens, and has been paying about $115,000 a year for debt retirement. The $250,000 fund reserve and the $58,000 grant will be used to pay off part of that indebtedness, he said.

Caudill said the state grant provides relief for school districts with high debt levels, but a change in the act's qualifications means that Benton Harbor, because of its low state equalized valuation per child, also qualifies.

Taxpayers in the former Martindale school district will also have another and more significant tax reduction this year, according to Rankens. He said a debt incurred by Martindale before the Benton Harbor district was formed has now been paid off. The 4.4560 mills will not be levied on Martindale district residents this year, he said.

In other action, the board voted to adopt a committee's recommendation to disapprove of any change in an agreement with Continental Illinois bank on the disposition of bankrupt Benton Harbor Malleable property.

Continental Illinois is a Malleable creditor but the City of Benton Harbor, Benton Harbor area schools and Berrien county — as local taxing entities — get proceeds on sale of property up to $300,000.

Continental Illinois bank had offered to withdraw its objection to sale of two Malleable buildings to Triax Tube Co. for $27,500 if the limit it begins receiving a cut of the proceeds is lowered from $300,000 to $250,000.

The committee recommendation adopted by the board last night asked that the original agreement "remain the same" and asked that the City of Benton Harbor "provide adequate information" on future sales of Malleable property.

Melvin Farmer, Benton Harbor city manager and school board vice president who earlier was accused of conflict of interest in the matter, abstained from voting on the motion. Voting yes were Frank Culby, Freddie Moore, and E.E. Bentley. Absent were Mrs. Jacqueline Pearson who made the "conflict of interest" charge against Farmer, and Mrs. Janet Scott and Arthur Crump.

The board approved a new two-year contract with Wallace Dunn Jr., principal of Benton Harbor high school. Dunn joined the school district in 1969 as a teacher at Benton Harbor junior high and was promoted to high school principal in 1974. His salary is currently under union negotiations, according to Caudill.

Other administrators hired by the board last night include:

— Jerilee Gregory, coordinator of reading services, replacing Kaye Rothery who retired in June. Mrs. Gregory, who received her master's degree from Western Michigan university, will receive a salary of

The annual picnic for Ball Rubber and Industrial Rubber Goods retirees will be held at noon Tuesday, Aug. 23, at the shelter of Riverview park, St. Joseph. Those attending are asked to bring a dish to pass. Further information may be obtained from members of the picnic committee, Lewis Namor, Fred Schultz, or Bernice Zelbel.

Plan Shoreham Art Fair

ANNUAL EVENT: Preparations are now being made for the sixth annual Shoreham Village Art fair, Sunday, Sept. 4, from 11 a.m. to 6 p.m. Mrs. Henry (Marguerite) Batson, left, holds poster, designed by Mrs. Ray (Dorothy) Miller, that is used each year. Mrs. Batson designed the guide book. Checking out spaces for artists who have registered for the fair are Mrs. Frank (Beverly) Linn, center, and Mrs. F.V. (Junilata) Cupp, chairman of the event. According to Mrs. Cupp, about one fifth of the fair is devoted to crafts that are unique and the remainder features fine art in many forms. The fair will be held on the Johnson, Thurkettle, Liskey and Kinney properties, 3170 to 3180 South Lakeshore drive, in Shoreham village, four miles south of St. Joseph. Raindate for the event is Labor Day, Sept. 5. (Staff photo)

Remodel Lobby

Auxiliary Raises Funds

A 1976 donation of $5,500 from the auxiliary make the remodeling project possible.

Members of Berrien General auxiliary donate their time to staff an information desk in the lobby in addition to their other volunteer services.

Open House Sunday

WATERVLIET — Mrs. Elsie Brunson, route 2, Watervliet, will be honored at an open house Sunday, Aug. 21, in celebration of her 90th birthday.

The event will be held from 2 to 5 p.m. at St. Peter's United Church of Christ, St. Joseph.

Friends and relatives are invited to the open house being hosted by Mrs. Brunson's daughters, Mrs. Donald (Fay) Granger of St. Joseph and Mrs. George (Jane) Krieger of Watervliet, and her sister, Mrs. Lydia Chew of St. Joseph.

Mrs. Brunson was born Aug. 22, 1887. Prior to retiring in 1962, she was employed by Industrial Rubber Company.

Yule Cards Sales Begin

Perhaps you haven't given it a thought, but come Sept. 1 there will be just 99 shopping days until Christmas.

There's ample evidence that many have already started our Christmas shopping.

That's the word from a number of retailers throughout the country — specifically, those who have just introduced 1977 Christmas albums of personalized greeting cards.

The personalized, or PG card, is the type that carries the imprinted name of the sender — for instance, "Season's Greetings — Betty and Bob Amplejoy". Publishers of PG cards consider them the couture in Christmas fashion. While many department stores may not reach their peak sales until after Thanksgiving, numerous gift and specialty shops are reporting a brisk trade at the present.

In the resort community in Maine, a combination restaurant-gift shop, says: "We find that women, vacationing here with their families, choose their personalized greeting cards at this time of year, shopping in a leisurely, unhurried manner. These women tend to make an initial selection of cards, then bring their husbands in for final approval," Perella describes.

What's the advice most retailers have for the consumer who lean toward personalized greeting cards? "Make a list." Now's the time, they suggest, to prepare your Christmas mailing list, long before the frenzy of last-minute shopping.

Provide Accurate Measures

Thermometers provide accurate measures for a variety of needs. A meat thermometer tells the cook the internal temperature of a roast at a glance. Other thermometers serve special purposes: Deep fat, jelly and candy thermometers help the cook achieve standard results. Freezer and oven thermometers can verify temperatures.

Food thermometers should be washed carefully in suds after each use. Remove food particles and grease with a sudsy sponge or cloth. This is easier if done promptly before food hardens. It may also help to soak the thermometers to loosen baked-on residue.

Safety Belts Better Clean

Keeping car safety belts clean can be an important factor in their use. Drivers and passengers alike may neglect to fasten dirty belts in order to avoid soiling clothes.

Fortunately, the belts are made of sturdy webbing so that they can be scrubbed with a stiff brush dipped in detergent or soap suds to remove embedded dirt. Rinse with clean water and absorb excess moisture with a towel. Lay belts across towels to air dry completely.

ATTENTION! Future Brides

Brides-to-be planning engagement announcements and wedding stories in this newspaper are asked to observe the following rules:

Engagement and wedding forms are available in the women's department at The Herald-Palladium offices in Benton Harbor or St. Joseph. The pertinent information should be typed or plainly printed in filling out these forms to prevent errors.

Wedding forms should be picked up at least two weeks and turned in 10 days before the wedding is to take place.

When wedding information is sent within two months of the engagement announcement date, only ONE picture will be run. The bride-to-be may have her choice.

Use proper names — not nicknames. In wedding information, use husband's names for married attendants.

Only pictures of the bride in her wedding dress will be used. Formal glossy black and white portraits are preferred.

Rescue Children From Fossilization

Rescuing their children from possible fossilization in front of the family TV set has become a major preoccupation with so many parents that scheduling a talk on the subject of, "Your Child and TV," has become a sure way to guarantee standing-room only attendance at any meeting anywhere.

It's a "hot" subject all right, and one that justifiably concerns the average parent, considering that by graduation the average American child will have spent many more hours in front of the TV than in school.

There have been more than 2,300 studies and reports on children and tele-viewing. Although findings vary, all the "experts" seem to agree that parents must play a part in deciding what their children watch and for how long, helping them to get the most from their viewing time and to balance TV watching with real life experiences. They also agree that there is scarcely a child to be found who wouldn't choose a project with Mummy or Daddy over staring at "the set." So take heart, there's hope...

Projects come in so many shapes and sizes that it is hard to think of an activity that can't be turned into a parent/child adventure. Mundane chores such as vacuuming the house, scrubbing the car or setting the table can be made into projects, even if you aren't crazy about having your shoes vacuumed, the driveway polished or baby's flatware set at your place at the table.

Then there's going to the library together or taking a nature walk. All these things fall into the "free project" category.

When you add a few inexpensive materials and make it an arts and crafts project, things will become even more lively. A few sheets of paper and a pair of scissors, for instance, may be the beginning of a great family interest in origami or paper airplane designing. A few dais of paint and some paper may bring out talent in your offspring (and yourself) that you never guessed was there.

And then there's the wonderful adventure of sculpting little thins and thais together. Various types of clay can be purchased in art or toy stores, but for a very inexpensive clay can be whipped up right in the kitchen whenever the children have the yen, with a recipe for

HOMEMADE PLAY CLAY

Play Clay.

Play Clay is made from starchy materials that are probably in your kitchen right now. One is baking soda. The other is corn starch, that gives a shiny translucence to gravies. Chinese dishes and sauces, thickens pies, stews and pot roast juices.

To the Play Clay add a few drops of food coloring and it will turn from pure white to whatever color the budding artist desires. Play Clay masterpieces can also be brightened with children's paints or felt tip markers after they have dried.

Special aspects of a project such as working with clay are the development of small hand muscles and the enlarging of creative imaginations. These are two areas that studies show children are sliding in, probably because of less time drawing, coloring, or doing other projects with their hands.

"Extra dividends are the Grandma gifts that will undoubtedly be created, as well as surprises for parents. It feels great to pinch and poke, snip and slap, roll and cut or even stomp and kick a batch of Play Clay. What a release for tensions!

PLAY CLAY

One cup corn starch
Two cups baking soda (one pound package)
One and one-half cups cold water

In medium saucepan stir together corn starch and baking soda. Add water all at once and stir until smooth. Cook over medium heat, stirring constantly, until mixture reaches the consistency of slightly dry thoroughly before using. Makes about two pounds clay. Note: recipe may be cut in half.

For large quantity: Follow method for Play Clay using three and one-half cups corn starch (a one pound package), six cups baking soda (three pounds) and one quart cold water. Makes about six pounds clay.

Tips for Play Clay Playing with preschoolers:

Whenever possible, work on a formica counter top or other surface that can be easily sponged clean at the end of the day. It is much more fun for everyone if the parent doesn't have to fuss over small spills. There will be many.

Provide as many utensils for making special shapes as possible so that little fingers can try many things. Potato mashers, bottle tops, soles of shoes and bits of screen make interesting textures when pressed into clay. So do small hands and feet.

Play Clay squeezed through a garlic press make delightful "worms" or strands of "hair." Plastic straws are ideal for punching out circles or making dots and lots and lots of things can be done with toothpicks, beads, pebbles and a batch of Play Clay.

When joining pieces of clay, moisten them slightly. Rolling out the clay with a rolling pin and shaping it into balls or coils are excellent two-handed activities encouraging good coordination.

Eating In Great Outdoors Has Special Appeal

The weekend is coming. For some people that means packing up the car or camper and moving out.

More and more people are hitting the highway for a favorite away-from-it-all place. Answering the call of the wild and hungry appetites, too, requires special take along foods.

Those that pack well without need for too much refrigeration space or tote easily and aren't too fragile work best.

SALMON SKILLET SUPPER

One can (seven and three-fourths ounce) salmon
One can (eight-ounce) cut green beans
One can (sixteen-ounce) stewed tomatoes
One-half cup water
One-half teaspoon onion salt
One cup instant rice
One cup (four ounces) shredded sharp Cheddar cheese
Drain salmon, reserving liquid; break into chunks. Drain beans, reserving liquid. Heat stewed tomatoes, reserved salmon and bean liquids, water and onion salt in skillet. Add rice. Cover; simmer five minutes. Add salmon, beans and cheese; heat. Makes four servings.

SUNSHINE PEAR SLAW

One can (sixteen-ounce) Bartlett pears
Three cups finely shredded cabbage
Three-fourths cup shredded carrot
Two tablespoons sunflower seeds
One-third cup bottled Italian dressing
Drain pears. Reserve one pear half for garnish and dice remainder. Combine diced pears, cabbage, carrot and sunflower seed. Add dressing; toss. Cut reserved pear half in thirds; garnish salad. Makes four servings.

RIVER RAFTER'S GRANOLA

Two-thirds cup firmly packed brown sugar
One-half cup butter or margarine, melted
One-third cup honey
Two cups quick or old-fashioned oats, uncooked
One cup raisins
One-half cup sunflower seeds
One-half cup wheat germ
One teaspoon cinnamon
Combine sugar, butter and honey in three-quart saucepan. Cook over low heat, stirring constantly, until well blended and smooth; remove from heat. Add remaining ingredients, mixing until dry ingredients are well coated.
Spread mixture evenly into ungreased thirteen by nine-inch baking pan. Bake in preheated moderate oven (350 degrees) about 25 minutes, stirring occasionally, until golden brown and bubbly. Spread mixture on to ungreased cookie sheet; cool. Break into bite-size pieces. Store in tightly covered container in cool dry place. Makes about six cups granola.

Does summer bring the smell of fresh-caught fish, the clatter of fishing tackle and an overwhelming desire to get out into the countryside?
If so, you have plenty of company. Last year millions of Americans were lured away from the cities and suburbs to fish, camp and just enjoy nature.

Fishing and camping are hobbies that have been growing by leaps in recent decades. The call to the wild outdoors is compelling. In a recent national survey, a surprising one man in three listed fishing as his favorite pastime. Camping was cited by one in five.

The area of the country may somewhat determine the activity. In the South, for example, fishing holds center stage, as it has for generations. In the West, national parks like Sequoia, Yellowstone and Yosemite attract thousands of overnight campers and hikers. Even in the urbanized Northeast, summer weekends find crowds in parks and woodlands, and fishermen at every available creek and stream.

Regardless of the region, just being in the great outdoors always brings on extra-ravenous appetites. Of course, fresh-caught fish are ideal. But what if the fish haven't been biting? The smart cook is always prepared to deal with this situation by having plenty of fast fix'n's on hand.

Corny Frankwiches fit the bill.

CORNY FRANKWICHES

One-half pound frankfurters, sliced
Two tablespoons butter or margarine
Two cans (eleven and one-fourth-ounce each) condensed chili beef soup
One-half cup water
One can (seven-ounce) whole kernel corn, undrained
Two tablespoons ketchup
Two tablespoons sweet pickle relish
Four hamburger buns, split and toasted
In saucepan, brown frankfurters in butter; stir in remaining ingredients except buns. Heat; stir occasionally. Serve over buns. Makes about five cups, four servings.

Another speedy choice, and one that is sure to be a campsite hit, is Sundown Soup Special.

SUNDOWN SOUP SPECIAL

Two cans (eleven and one-half-ounce each) condensed split pea with ham soup
Four and one-half cups water
Four to five ounces dried beef, rinsed and drained
One can (about twenty ounces) chick peas, drained
One can (about eight ounces) tomatoes, drained and cut up
One-fourth teaspoon basil leaves, crushed
One-fourth teaspoon thyme leaves, crushed
In large saucepan, stir soup until smooth; gradually blend in water. Add remaining ingredients. Heat; stir occasionally. Makes about seven cups, four servings.

One-fourth cup sweet pickle relish
One-fourth teaspoon onion salt
Six long hard rolls
Drain broth from chicken; reserve. Cut up chicken. In bowl, gradually blend reserved broth into cheese. Stir in chicken and remaining ingredients except rolls. Cut a thick slice from one end of each roll; hollow out soft center. Fill hollow in each roll with about one-half cup chicken mixture. Makes six sandwiches.

FISHERMAN'S FIND

Two pounds fresh fish, cleaned (bass, trout, etc.)
Cornmeal
Three to four tablespoons butter or margarine
One can (ten and three-fourths-ounce) condensed golden mushroom soup
One-third cup water
One tablespoon ketchup
Two teaspoons dry parsley flakes
One-half teaspoon dill weed
Cooked rice

Lightly coat fish with cornmeal. In skillet, brown fish in butter; cook until fish flakes easily. Remove fish; keep warm. In same skillet, combine remaining ingredients except rice. Heat, stirring to loosen browned bits. Serve with fish and rice. Makes four servings, about one and one-half cups sauce.

SPAGHETTI WITH FRESH CLAM SAUCE

One cup chopped onion
One teaspoon Italian seasoning, crushed
One-fourth cup butter or margarine
Two cans (ten and three-fourths-ounce each) condensed tomato soup
One cup water
One-fourth teaspoon hot pepper sauce
One-fourth teaspoon garlic powder
Three dozen small raw clams, cleaned Cooked spaghetti

In saucepan, cook onion with Italian seasoning in butter until tender. Stir in soup, water, hot pepper sauce and garlic powder. Simmer ten minutes to blend flavors; stir occasionally. Meanwhile, in covered saucepan, steam clams in a small amount of water ten minutes or until clams open; drain. Add clams to sauce. Serve with spaghetti. Makes four servings, about three and one-half cups sauce.

Bicyclists grow larger in numbers each year and they know riding is one of the healthiest forms of exercise.

However, cyclists realize part of the fun is exploring new areas. They gather in small groups, decide on the destination of the day's ride, pack a lightweight lunch and take off down the road, pedaling to a nearby picnic ground or a faraway park.

For beginners, a bike outing should not be too strenuous. Remember once you reach the appointed rendezvous, there won't be any automobiles waiting to drive you home. What pedals out must pedal back.

Lunch time is usually the midway point in the bike excursion. The food should be easy to carry and easy to eat. A Portable Poor Boy Sandwich is loaded with meat and topped with an herbed spiced salad dressing. Add some fresh fruit compote and potato chips and the lunch is complete.

PORTABLE POOR BOY SANDWICHES

One-half small purple onion, thinly sliced
One medium-sized green pepper, cut into thin rings

One two and one-half-ounce can sliced mushrooms
One-half cup (four-ounces) bottled herb spiced salad dressing
Four five-inch long French or Italian sandwich rolls, unsliced
Eight thin slices cooked ham
Twelve thin slices cooked turkey
Eight slices cotija salami
Two long thin slices Muenster or Monterey Jack cheese, cut in half Four wooden picks

Combine onion, green pepper, mushrooms and salad dressing; set aside. Split rolls in half lengthwise. Pour one tablespoon salad dressing from vegetables over cut surface of bottom of each roll. Top with ham, turkey and salami slices. Pour remaining dressing over cut surfaces of top halves of rolls. Arrange vegetables over salami. Cover with cheese and top half of roll. Secure with wooden picks. (SUN'S UP SPECIAL)

CAMPGROUND CHOWDER

Four slices bacon
One medium onion, chopped
Two teaspoons chili powder
Two cans (nineteen-ounce each) chunky beef soup
One can (about twenty-ounces) chick peas, drained
In saucepan, cook bacon until crisp; remove and crumble. Pour off all but two tablespoons drippings. Cook onion with chili powder in drippings until tender. Add remaining ingredients. Heat; stir occasionally. Garnish with bacon. Makes about six cups, four servings. If desired, serve over mashed potatoes.

One egg
Four tablespoons catchup
One-half teaspoon salt
One pound ground beef
One-half cup canned french fried onion rings, coarsely broken
One to two tablespoons oil
One and one-fourth cups water
One envelope (seven-eighths-ounce) brown gravy mix Toast
Lightly beat together egg, three tablespoons of the catchup, and salt in large bowl. Add beef and onion rings; mix lightly. Shape into meatballs. Brown in oil in large skillet. Add water, contents of gravy mix envelope and remaining one tablespoon catchup. Cover; simmer 15 to 20 minutes, until cooked. Serve on toast.

Chives Provide Tasty Treats

A pot of chives growing on the kitchen windowsill provides a lot of tasty treats. Scramble a couple of eggs and fold in cottage cheese, then sprinkle chopped fresh chives on top. Chopped chives with plain yogurt makes a salad dressing that's low in calories and very special on fresh leaf lettuce.

'Your Problems' By Ann Landers

Wife's No Kin, Mate Says

Dear Ann Landers: According to my husband we aren't related. How do you like that, after 23 years and seven children?

We got into the discussion when he was filling out a card of some kind. It asked who is your next of kin. I saw him write down his mother's name. When I told him I was his closest relative he replied, "No, you aren't. As a matter of fact, if you want to get technical we aren't even related."

I told him I wasn't the kind of woman who would live with a stranger and maybe he had better move out. He said I was getting senile before my time and maybe he should have the mental health people come and get me.

Please settle this argument, Ann. It's in its fourth day and I don't think I can take much more. Thank you. — Living With A Stranger In Abilene, Texas

Dear Living: It seems to me a woman who has given her husband seven children is more than just a nodding acquaintance. In fact, according to law you are his next of kin.

Your husband, no doubt, means you are not a blood relative, which of course is true. He sounds like a needle artist to me. Tune him out when he starts to act precocious. Four-day fights are bad for the nerves.

Equal Time

Dear Ann Landers: Recently you published a letter from a dog. Would you please give equal time to a cat?

Dear Ann: I live in a very comfortable home, have plenty of food, a grassy yard and lots of loving attention.

My problem? I am four years old and have given birth to 20 kittens. As soon as the kittens are through nursing, my master takes them to the animal shelter.

Yesterday a visitor told him there was no good reason for this senseless breeding of unwanted kittens and that I should be spayed. Every day the animal shelters are forced to kill most of the kittens and puppies to make room for the next flood of unwanted animals. She also said it was a great burden on the taxpayers but that the killings at the animal shelters, sad as they were, were preferable to the fate of abandoned cats and dogs who die from starvation, injury, or abuse.

After hearing of the fate of unwanted animals I no longer want to contribute to the problem. My owners read your column every day and respect your judgment. I hope you will tell them that I should be spayed immediately because old Mother Nature is once again making me desire the company of the sexy Tom next door. — One Of Millions

Dear One: You sound like a pretty hip cat to me. I hope your owner and millions of others who have pets will get the picture and do likewise.

Shoe Scene

Dear Readers: I was nearly stomped to death by the shoe industry for saying the new models are cripplers and a woman has got to be suicide-prone to venture out in those five-inch spikes. The solution I suggested — wear your old ones.

Several manufacturers hesitated to inform me that those five-inch spikes are mostly in the windows and there are plenty of lower-heeled numbers in the stock rooms. I took time out to check today and am happy to report that safe, sane, and fashionable shoes for women are now available. In fact, I bought a pair myself.

There is a big difference between cold and cool. Ann Landers shows you how to play it cool without freezing people out in her booklet, "Teen-Age Sex — Ten Ways to Cool It." Send 50 cents in coin and a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope to Ann Landers, P.O. Box 11995, Chicago, Ill. 60611.

HEALTH
Lawrence E. Lamb, M.D.

DEAR DR. LAMB — Your comments on Motrin surprised me. I went to my doctor for arthritis in my knees (real bad). He gave me Motrin, I supposed, to help cure it. He is a man of few words and didn't comment. Your articles said it is strictly a pain reliever. I would like to have your Health Letter number 8-8, Aspirin and Related Medicine that you mentioned in your column about Motrin to find out more about these medicines.

Why is it so many doctors will not use cortisone shots in the knees for relief? When my husband (now dead) had painful knees from arthritis his doctor put cortisone in them and he had great relief for a long time but my doctor does not do that.

Thank you for your columns in our paper.

DEAR READER — You shouldn't be so surprised that Motrin is just a pain reliever in the treatment of degenerative arthritis. The truth is there is NO CURE for osteoarthritis (degenerative arthritis). In rheumatoid arthritis cures are rare and may simply be remissions of the disease. The purpose of treatment for the common forms of arthritis is to help control the disease if possible or to relieve pain so the person can live a more normal life.

Aspirin, Tylenol, Motrin and all of these medicines used in the treatment of osteoarthritis (degenerative arthritis) serve only to relieve pain. You may have seen TV ads stating that aspirin relieves inflammation. That is a half-truth. Its anti-inflammation action is accomplished — with much larger doses than is used to relieve pain. The common amounts of aspirin and related medicines used without a doctor's supervision do not have any effective anti-

Your Birthday

For Thursday, Aug. 18, 1977

If you don't like the way city hall is being run, maybe you should get involved this coming year. You might find it stimulating — and even discover you have a talent for politics.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) You might find yourself with someone you're very much attracted to today. Just be careful you don't read more into her reactions than they mean. Having trouble selecting a career? Send for your copy of Astro-Graph Letter by mailing 50 cents for each and a long, self-addressed stamped envelope to Astro-Graph, P.O. Box 489, Radio City Station, New York, N.Y. 10019.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) Before you pay for something you've ordered for the house, be certain it's exactly what you wanted. Otherwise you could buy a white elephant.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 22) Be a showman if it serves to bolster your image today, but keep it in good taste. Don't try anything outlandish.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23-Nov. 22) Your financial outlook is encouraging today, but don't give away the store if you don't have to. Be fair, but also be sensible.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21) Don't complicate your life today by coveting that which belongs to someone else. This includes possessions or a person.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) Someone you think is a booster today may really be a flatterer. Your true ally will be the person who says little, but does a lot for you.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 19) Seek those who inspire you today. They will uplift your spirits. You will come away refreshed from encounters with them.

PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20) Much can be accomplished today — don't worry about how long something takes, just do it, right and get it finished.

ARIES (March 21-April 19) A loved one could disappoint you today, because you've placed him on a pedestal, or expect more from him than you should. We all have human frailties.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20) If you're having something special done for you today, give explicit instructions. Otherwise, the results could offend your artistic taste.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20) It's the little things that count in your romance today. Don't shower her with flowers or bangles. Give her attention, courtesy and respect.

CANCER (June 21-July 22) Don't play the reigning monarch today and delegate all the domestic chores. You'll get much more homage by carrying your share of the load.

doubled in short and simple. South ruffs the heart lead in dummy, ruffs a club, leads a trump, finesses, ruffs a club, leads a second trump, finesses again, ruffs one more club to set up the rest of the club suit, leads his last trump to pick up West's last trump and makes the last six tricks with little clubs.

It is a trifle hard to justify the bidding in contract, but if you are going to make up hands you are entitled to poetic license.

Incidentally, a writer named Sam Hellman used this hand in the Saturday Evening Post some 50 years ago as the basis for a very funny bridge story.

Ask the Jacobys

Several readers have confused this hand with the Mississippi heart hand. In that hand the victim holds:

A ♠ A ♣ K ♣ J 10 9 ♠ A K Q J

and makes only his six top trumps in a heart contract. His one opponent holds all seven trumps and spades and scores the remaining seven tricks.

That hand was used in the old game of bridge in which all contracts were at the one level and hearts were the highest-ranking suit.

By Oswald & James Jacoby

Some 200 years ago the Duke of Cumberland lost a good part of his direct estates in a game of whist when he was dealt a hand similar to that held by West. The sad feature about the hand is that there is no way for West to take a trick.

In the Whist hand the Duke actually held four spades and led one. Without a spade lead we can't handle four trumps in the West hand so we only gave him three.

The play at seven spades

Ermo Bombeck Shower Syndrome

A mother wrote last week and said, "My son is so shy and uncommunicative I probably won't know he is going through puberty until he has passed it."

Boys are like that. If my son came home and found me unconscious on the kitchen floor, he'd yell in my unconscious ear, "What's for snack?"

Actually, there is only one surefire, fail-safe, infallible way of telling whether or not your son has discovered that girls need more padding on a softball team than boys do.

I call it the Shower Syndrome.

For four or five years, the only contact my sons had with water was a sponge in the back of the church filled with holy water. I had the only kids on the block who could take a shower and not get their hair, trousers or shoes wet.

I nagged them to death about it.

"Did you take a bath?"

"I went swimming."

"Did you wash your hands?"

"I washed the one that was dirty. See?"

"Why don't you take a shower?"

"Where are we going?" Then, for no apparent reason, we heard the water running... and running. And running. And running.

"What is he doing in the shower this long?" asked my husband. "Washing away his sins?"

"He has just discovered girls."

"When is he going to discover that we only have a 30-gallon hot water tank and he emptied that to wash his hair?"

"Cleanliness is next to Godliness," I quoted.

"Billy Graham isn't that religious."

"Look," I said, "I know a body left in water three days is not attractive, and you know it, but the point is, he doesn't know it."

If you can't hear the water running, there are still other clues to your son's discovery of the opposite sex. He will use a can of deodorant a day... for each arm... each time he takes a shower. He will use mouthwash like it runs free out of the tap. As for shampoo, I never thought I would see the day when I would hide two tablespoons of shampoo in the tea canister so I could wash my hair over the weekend.

As my husband observed the other day as he stepped from his cold shower, brushed his teeth with baking soda, squirted hair spray under each arm and gargled with a cup of coffee, "I think I liked 'em better when they were dirty."

Student Wins Right To Sit During Pledge

By ROBERT B. THOMPSON
Associated Press Writer

NEWARK, N.J. (AP) — "I did it. I'm glad I did it. I got what I wanted," said 18-year-old Debbie Lipp after a federal court judge here ruled unconstitutional New Jersey's law requiring students to stand during the pledge to the flag.

U.S. District Court Judge H. Curtis Meador said Tuesday the Mountain Lakes High School student could remain seated during the pledge in school as long as she "doesn't whistle, drum, tap, dance or otherwise be disruptive."

The decision was a victory for the high school junior who took principal Harry Morse to court when he threatened to suspend her in May for refusing to stand during the pledge.

Meador let stand a section of the state law barring disruptions during the flag pledge. Miss Lipp's attorney, Constance Hepburn of the American Civil Liberties Union, argued that requiring students to stand — even if they choose not to recite the Pledge of Allegiance — constitutes participation, a violation of the First Amendment right to free expression.

Miss Lipp, who moved from Massachusetts to Mountain Lakes last March, said she stood for the first week "because I was in a new environment."

Miss Lipp said Morse told her "you have to stand if you want to be in this school."

She then began sitting during the pledge because she said the phrase "with liberty and justice for all" is "a lie."

School and state attorneys claimed standing silently was not participation. "She stood when your honor entered the court room," they said.

"That's not relevant. She's never met me before," Meador replied.

"Is there any reason to doubt she believes 'with liberty and justice for all' isn't so? Many other persons don't believe it. I know. I've sentenced a lot of them," he said.

Meador said he based his decision on two federal appeals court cases, one of them decided in 1943, that ruled a person does not have to participate in the pledge.

"I understand the state law was meant to be an observance in line with federal customs," Meador said, "but it uses mandatory language and I'm going to rule against it."

Hate mail began arriving soon after she was threatened with suspension from classes in

DEBBIE LIPP
"I DID IT"

May, Miss Lipp said in an interview after the court session Tuesday. "Some was obscene. Most of it was anonymous. It came from all over the country. Then fan mail began arriving," she said. "It averaged out to about 50-50 on the type of mail."

In demonstrations against her, former Rep. Joseph Maraziti suggested Miss Lipp send in her citizenship papers and receive "a passport to anywhere," mopeds appeared with "Ship the Lipps to Siberia" stickers and 100 veterans flew their flags upside down — a signal of distress.

But Miss Lipp also said, "People who I've never met before would come up and say 'Thanks'."

MORE EXPENSIVE TO MAKE Square Headlamps Styling Fad

By OWEN ULLMANN
Associated Press Writer

DETROIT (AP) — Those rectangular headlamps on your new car are the latest styling fad from Detroit. And while they don't offer better lighting, they require more glass and energy to produce and cost twice as much as round lamps to replace.

The conversion to rectangular lamps since 1975 has been as swift and pervasive as during the tailfin era two decades earlier.

And like tailfins, the new lamps were designed for cosmetic purposes to make new cars look newer, crisper and different.

"The way we started out undoubtedly was a styling decision," says Rex Oyler, executive engineer at General Motors' Lamp Division in Anderson, Ind., which makes lights for GM and other vehicles.

"I don't think that is all bad," adds Oyler. "To the extent that it makes a product more appealing, we like that."

When GM introduced dual rectangular lamps, two on each side, on some large and luxury cars in 1975, it was the first major styling change in lighting since stacked lamps debuted in 1937. GM extended has been extending its use of rectangular lamps in the past two years and will again in 1978.

Ford and Chrysler began using rectangular lamps this year, and American Motors will join the movement for 1978.

The lamps provide no more visibility than round lamps. Federal law requires that they meet identical lighting requirements.

The cost difference, however, is substantial when you have to replace a burned-out lamp.

Several auto discount stores in Detroit quoted prices ranging from $1.69 to $2.19 for a round lamp and $3.56 to $4.99 for a rectangular one.

GM's list price for round lamps is $4.14 for the small dual lamp and $5.11 for the larger single. Comparable rectangular lamps list for $8.11 and $11.63, respectively.

Gold's Oyler says a rectangular lamp uses 37 per cent more material than a round lamp and is more difficult to produce because, "when you put down a gob of glass and press it, it naturally wants to take on a round shape. To make it rectangular requires a longer cycle time."

"In the sense that fewer pieces are produced per unit of time, that involves more energy."

Oyler says the rectangular design has potential secondary advantages. If positioned side by side, they let designers lower the hood line, which lessens wind resistance and may help improve fuel economy. Also, the design provides more possibilities for front-end changes.

But mostly, it comes back to styling. "If you put a car with rectangular lamps side by side with one with round lamps, I think people quickly pick the car with rectangular lamps," Oyler says. "They look nicer."

"And, that is what it always comes down to — appearance. It's the largest single motivator for purchasing a car."

Winner Trying Again

LANSING, Mich. (AP) — A cafeteria helper from Pontiac makes her fourth appearance in the state lottery's "Michigan" show Thursday, defending her Super Player position for a third time. Artiller Carls has won $314,000 so far, and stands to add another $100,000 to her winnings. Her challengers will be: Marjorie Argyle, 56, of Mikado, a member of the lottery subscription club; Richard Gasser, 36, of Flint, a draftsman; Lucienne Melling, 49, of Ferndale; Albert Montee, 47, of Westland, a sales engineer; Arthur Oakley, 53, of Clawson, a salesman, and Jean Wilmers, 18, of Hancock, a grocery employee.

Spending Limit Kayoed

LANSING, Mich. (AP) — A city may not get campaign spending limits for city offices, the state attorney general has ruled. Atty. Gen. Frank Kelley said in a letter to state Sen. Michael O'Brien, D-Detroit, that spending limits can only apply to gubernatorial candidates who apply for money from the state campaign fund. Cities can require candidates to make reports of campaign contributions, Kelley said. But the law cannot be more stringent than state law. Under state law, names of donors giving over $20 must be disclosed. Those giving less than $20 don't have to be listed, except that the total amount of contributions from those giving such small amounts must be disclosed.

House Wants Canal Hearing

By RICHARD PYLE
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — A House committee, accusing the Carter administration of ignoring Congress in agreeing to a proposed new Panama Canal treaty, wants the President's negotiators to explain the pact at a special hearing.

Ambassadors Sol Linowitz and Ellsworth Bunker are planning to testify today before the House Merchant Marine and Fisheries Committee, panel aides said. Two State Department officials also were to appear.

Rep. John M. Murphy, D-N.Y., the committee's chairman, said in a statement announcing the hearing that the panel "is not prepared to watch the American canal in Panama go down the drain — or to allow its constitutional rights to be violated."

Carter evidently has decided to press for Senate ratification of the treaty after the August recess. The President also faces stiff resistance in the House, where opponents charge the treaty would be a "giveaway" of U.S. property, and risks letting the canal fall into communist hands.

Murphy's committee exercises control over budget authorization and appropriations for operating the canal.

Committee sources said some objections to the treaty were based on fears that it would increase sharply the amount of money the United States pays Panama annually. Some committee members reportedly also fear that the pact would give Panama too large a voice in running the canal before the year 2000, when the waterway is to come under Panamanian control.

Opponents also object to turning over the Canal Zone, with its numerous U.S.-built facilities, to Panama. They disagree with the Carter administration's position that the United States enjoys property "rights," but not ownership, in the 10-mile-wide zone.

Murphy called it "no accident" that a Soviet "economic team" was recently in Panama working out what he said were commercial agreements with the government led by Panamanian President Omar Torrijos.

"Like vultures, the com-

TIGHT SECURITY FOR BERKOWITZ: New York City police hold back crowds at New York State Supreme Court building in Brooklyn Tuesday as David Berkowitz arrives in corrections department van escorted by six police cars. munists are circling what remains of dying American influence and control over its own property," Murphy said.

Murphy charged that initiating the treaty at this time was "a deliberate move" by the administration to bypass Congress during the recess. "This is a sad reversal of the proper order of any decisions as to the disposition of U.S. property in the Canal Zone," he said.

The Carter administration already has won support from former President Gerald R. Ford and former Secretary of State Henry A. Kissinger for the treaty.

Ford, who was briefed Tuesday by Linowitz and Gen. George Brown, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, said he would "do what I can" to win support for the treaty among conservative Republicans.

He labeled the pact an important step forward and called for prompt Senate ratification.

Ford Fan Woes Push Recalls To 1.2 Million

DETROIT (AP) — Engine cooling fans in an estimated 783,500 Ford Motor Co. cars could break off and kill or injure someone working under the hood, the automaker said in announcing recall of the vehicles.

The recall, announced Tuesday, raises to 1.2 million the number of cars Ford has recalled since June for the same problem, which has resulted in one death and at least 19 injuries, according to government reports.

The federal government has said it is investigating a total of 62 million Ford cars and light trucks built since the 1970 model year which might have the defect. A government official said Tuesday the new recall does not end the probe.

"There may be others (recalls)," said Bernard M. Ames, a consumer affairs specialist for the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration in Washington.

The latest campaign involves 1976 and 1977 model standard-sized Fords and Mercurys and some 1977 Lincolns, all with V-8 engines.

Affected 1976-models are: —Air conditioned Fords and Mercurys with 351-cubic-inch and 400-c.i. engines; non-air conditioned Fords and Mercurys with police packages and, in the case of the 400-c.i. engine, with trailer-towing packages, and all non-air conditioned Fords and Mercurys with 460-c.i. engines except those equipped with police packages.

Affected 1977-models are: —Air conditioned Fords and Mercurys with 302- and 351-c.i. engines; non-air conditioned Fords and Mercurys with 351-c.i. engines and police packages; Lincolns with 400-c.i. engines; non-air conditioned Fords and Mercurys with 400-c.i. engines and police, or trailer-towing packages; and all non-air conditioned Ford and Mercurys with 460-c.i. engines, except those with police packages.

Ford said the fan blades on the vehicles may crack and pieces of the blades may eventually fly loose from the fan assemblies.

Ford said dealers would replace the fans at no charge to owners beginning at the end of September, when initial supplies of replacement parts will be available.

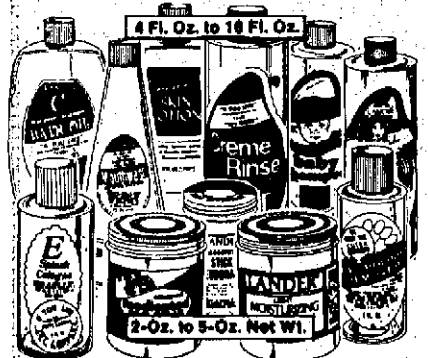

In the meantime, Ford warned owners and mechanics against working under the hood of a car with the engine running until the fans have been replaced.

Suspect Faces Deportation

MIAMI (AP) — A Nazi war crimes suspect accused of taking part in the deaths of up to 830,000 Jews during World War II faces deportation under a suit filed by federal prosecutors.

Feodore Demianovich Fedorenko, a 70-year-old naturalized American citizen now living in Miami Beach, "willfully lied and furnished false information to obtain an immigration visa to this country in 1948," according to the suit filed Monday in U.S. District Court.

Kalamazoo Fair Opens August 22

KALAMAZOO — The Kalamazoo county fair opens its six-day run Aug. 22 at the Recreation park fairgrounds, East Lake street here, according to Francis Bingham, fair president.

The fair will include headliners Mel Tillis, 1976 country music award winner, and jazz-rock group, "Blood, Sweat and Tears."

Other events scheduled include harness and quarter horse racing; horse, mule and tractor pulls; and the fair mainstay, livestock, poultry and rabbit judging. Also on tap are the Southwestern Michigan Guernsey cattle show, antique auto show, demolition derby and stock car races.

The fair opens at noon, Aug. 22, along with the midway. The Mel Tillis shows are slated Wednesday at 7 and 9 p.m., with Blood, Sweat and Tears scheduled for two shows at 7 and 9 p.m. Tuesday.

Admission to the fair is $2, with children under 13 free. Senior citizens and foreign students are also admitted free, the fair president said.

Hearings Scheduled On Liquor Charges

Hearings on alleged liquor violations involving four southwestern Michigan taverns will be held in Kalamazoo by the Michigan Liquor Control Commission, Aug. 23.

According to the commission, charged with alleged violations are:

Ira Williams, owner of the East End bar and grill, 995 East Main street, Benton township, is charged with allowing the tavern to be occupied after the legal hour. The violation was issued Feb. 5 by Benton township police.

Mildred Jewel Fritz, owner of the Rainbow Lounge, Red Arrow highway, Watervliet, is charged with refusing to cooperate with police, allowing an intoxicated person to loiter and consume alcoholic beverages and the tavern to be occupied after the legal hour. The alleged violation occurred Aug. 11, 1976, and was issued by state police of the Benton Harbor post.

James M. Reynolds, owner of the Gaslight hotel, Dowagiac, is charged with selling alcoholic beverages to an intoxicated person and allowing an intoxicated person to consume alcoholic beverages and loiter. The violation stems from an incident Dec. 3 of last year, according to Dowagiac police.

Henry G. Haringsma, owner of the Woodshed, 107 US-31, Douglas, is charged with allowing an intoxicated employee on the premises and allowing the tavern to be occupied after the legal hour. The incident occurred on March 9, according to Saugatuck police and the Allegan county sheriff's department.

U.S. Standing Depends On Pact--Young

BRIDGETOWN, Barbados (AP) — Ambassador Andrew Young after a 12-day tour of Caribbean nations says the standing of the United States in Latin America and the rest of the world depends on Senate ratification of the new Panama Canal treaty. "If it works, we're on our way. If it doesn't work, we're in trouble," the chief U.S. delegate to the United Nations told a news conference Tuesday at the end of his 10-nation swing.

Today In History

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

Today is Wednesday, Aug. 17, the 228th day of 1977. There are 136 days left in the year.

Today's highlight in history: On this date in 1943, in World War II, Allied forces gained complete control of the Italian island of Sicily.

On this date: In 1648, Oliver Cromwell defeated Royalists under the Duke of Hamilton at the Battle of Preston in England.

In 1786, a hero of the Battle of the Alamo, Davey Crockett, was born in Tennessee.

In 1863, Federal batteries and ships bombarded Fort Sumter in Charleston harbor during the Civil War.

In 1879, the French Panama Canal Company was formed under Ferdinand de Lesseps.

In 1945, the Dutch refused to recognize the territory of Indonesia as an independent nation.

In 1969, Hurricane Camille slammed into the U.S. Gulf Coast. About 300 people were killed as the storm battered Mississippi, Louisiana, Tennessee, West Virginia and Virginia.

NEW LIGHT ON DROWNING 'Dead' Not Always Dead

By DONALD WOUTAT
Associated Press Writer
ANN ARBOR, Mich. (AP) — To drown is to die, but death is getting difficult to define. Now a physician has turned up evidence that a lot of people presumed drowned weren't dead at all.

A study of near-drowning victims at University of Michigan Hospital has come across dramatic and complete recoveries by persons who were under water far beyond the four minutes long believed to be the limit before irreparable brain damage or death.

One survived 38 minutes under water after a car wreck. Declared dead at the scene, he is back in college and earning A's.

The lesson for would-be drowning victims is to choose cold water. The lesson for everyone else is to learn basic emergency medical techniques and "never give up," says Dr. Martin Nemiroff.

The U-M lung specialist has concluded that cold water — below 70 degrees — triggers a sort of primitive protective mechanism in humans, much like that in porpoises, whales and other diving mammals.

Called the "diving reflex," it slows the heartbeat and redistributes the blood flow in the body. Blood is shunted away from the extremities and into the brain, bringing it oxygen and delaying brain damage, Nemiroff explains.

"We've had requests to resuscitate people who have been under water for one and a half days," said the doctor.

The record-holder is 18-year-old Brian Cunningham of Jackson, Mich., who in March 1975 was unconscious and completely submerged in his wrecked car for 38 minutes before the vehicle was pulled from an icy pond.

Cunningham was promptly declared dead. But as the body was moved, he emitted a belch of air, and emergency crews began immediate efforts to revive him.

On admission to a hospital, his body temperature was 90, he had no blood pressure or pulse, and his electrocardiogram was a straight line. The resuscitation efforts had no apparent effect, and doctors recommended "pulling the plug."

But another doctor persuaded Cunningham's family to transfer him to University Hospital and entrust him to Nemiroff, an expert on drowning. Machines kept his heart pumping and supplied his lungs with blood.

Seventeen hours later, Cunningham opened his eyes, gestured to his mother and dozed off. Two weeks later he was discharged from the hospital, and days after that was back in college.

"I guess I know better than anyone that there are a lot of people in the ground now who really didn't have to be," Cunningham said two years after his accident.

Nemiroff bases his conclusions on 13 near-drowning incidents in cold Michigan waters over three years, he told colleagues at a recent medical meeting. They had been submerged an average of 10½ minutes each, and all appeared dead.

Of the 13, nine were resuscitated and have fully recovered, Nemiroff said. Two died of lung infections and two suffered brain damage.

In addition to water temperature, the keys to survival were youthfulness — six of the nine survivors were aged 3½ or younger — and immediate and persistent mouth-to-mouth resuscitation and open-heart massage.

The "diving reflex" quits working the instant the victim's face is no longer submerged, Nemiroff says.

The "diving reflex" quits working the instant the victim's face is no longer submerged, Nemiroff says.

The colder the water, the more pronounced is the protective reflex, he added. Florida studies have confirmed the four-minute survival limit in water temperatures of more than 70 degrees.

Foes Force Scrapping Of Toxin Disposal Plan

GAYLORD, Mich. (AP) — State officials are looking for another incinerator to burn some 14,000 gallons of a toxic chemical, C-56, after plans to burn the chemical at Utica were scrapped due to local opposition.

The Michigan Air Pollution Control Commission ordered its staff Tuesday to look for new ways or new places to get rid of the chemical, a component of Kepone, a suspected cancer-causing insecticide.

Officials said although the Utica plant, Liquid Disposal, Inc., is the best liquid incinerator in the state, they expected to find other adequate facilities where local opposition was not as great.

Discarded earlier this year in a Montcalm County landfill, the wastes are being stored under court order at the Hooker Chemical Co. in Montague. Hooker manufactured the chemical.

A plan to dispose of the chemical by burning it at the Utica plant was approved by the Montcalm Circuit Court.

But after listening Tuesday to the pleas of Shelby Twp. officials who don't want C-56 burned in their area, the air pollution commission voted 9-0 against issuing a permit to the Utica company.

A spokesman said the commission felt C-56 is being stored safely and there is no real urgency to get rid of it.

Shelby Twp. officials told the commission they had letters from 60 to 65 angry residents of the area and would fight any plans to burn the wastes at Utica.

Officials of Liquid Disposal, who earlier agreed to burn the C-56, have recently said they want nothing to do with the chemical because of local fears about it contaminating the environment.

But Department of Natural Resources officials say the people's fears are unfounded and actually a bit late.

More than 80,000 gallons of C-56 have been burned at the Utica facility since the end of 1975, they say, and other Michigan incinerators also have safely burned the chemical.

Robert Miller, enforcement chief for the DNR's environmental protection division, said the byproducts of burning C-56 are carbon dioxide, water and chlorine.

'Warning Label' For House Plants?

LANSING, Mich. (AP) — Common house plants which could cause harm would have to be clearly labeled before being sold under a bill introduced by a state senator.

Sen. Gary Corbin, D-Cliv., said his bill would require each houseplant to carry a label or tag warning of possible dangers if it's handled or tasted. He said a lot of plants are toxic, and small children often taste or eat parts of them.

Thor Heyerdahl Prepares For New Adventure

LAJUEGLIA, Italy (AP) — Thor Heyerdahl, who crossed the Pacific on a balsa raft and the Atlantic in a papyrus boat, is planning to sail the Indian Ocean on interlaced rushes.

The 62-year-old Norwegian explorer who travels the world's oceans to demonstrate how the ancients could have done it said in a telephone interview he would set out in November from the head of the Persian Gulf.

Heyerdahl said he wants to prove that the Sumerians, the ancient residents of Iraq, could have traveled to areas as distant as India and Southern Africa 5,000 years ago in rush boats.

New Tax Law Can Mean Refunds For Sick Pay

A federal tax bill recently signed into law may mean a tax refund for people who received pay while off the job due to sickness or injury last year or who received disability pensions during the 1976 tax year, according to the U.S. Internal Revenue Service.

The new law reinstates for the 1976 tax year the provision that excludes sick pay and certain disability pensions from taxable income. It also allows some taxpayers 65 years or older to choose the former retirement income credit or the new credit for the elderly, whichever is more advantageous. Qualified taxpayers must file an amended return to claim their refunds, according to the IRS office in Benton Harbor. The Benton Harbor office, located at 175 Territorial, will assist anyone in preparing the forms free of charge, according to John Hunter, IRS district director representative. Private tax accountants also file amended returns.

A taxpayer may be eligible for the sick pay exclusion if he received pay while absent from work because of sickness or injury not necessarily job related, or received a disability pension. Several factors must be considered to determine eligibility including length of absence, rate of pay, nature of sickness or injury, hospitalization, and the nature of a sick pay plan or disability pension covering the taxpayer.

SATISFIED WITH HOUSE PAINTING: Marine Branscumb, 596 Cass street, Benton Harbor, said painters from Benton Harbor's residential beautification program did a good job on her home. Old house paint was scraped and siding was patched before house was painted, she said, and some of lawn was seeded. Mrs. Branscumb paid $100 for the work.

the maximum material cost charged the owner of a large house judged to be in poor exterior condition, according to Program Coordinator Eric DeLong, shown talking with Mrs. Branscumb. Painters are paid by a $109,367 Comprehensive Employment Training Act grant that runs through October. The program employs 21 people. (Staff photo)

CETA PAINTERS AT WORK IN BH: Mike Jenkins, on shorter ladder, and Leon Smith, both of Benton Harbor, are working on house at 590 Territorial road that is being painted as part of the residential beautification program. Weather permitting, 30 or 40 Benton Harbor houses will be painted this summer, according to Eric DeLong, program coordinator. People who own a home, occupy it and meet low income guidelines can apply to have their houses painted at 59 Wall street, the former Monitor Sound building now serving as headquarters. Home owners pay a maximum of $100, which goes toward the costs of materials, while federal Comprehensive Employment Training Act funds pay workers' wages. Program also offers window glass replacement, yard cleaning and fence painting.

Brezhnev Wants To See 'Deeds'

By SETH MYDANS
Associated Press Writer
MOSCOW (AP) — President Leonid I. Brezhnev says some of President Carter's recent statements "sound positive" but he challenged him to translate them into "the language of practical deeds."

Brezhnev, in a speech Tuesday welcoming Yugoslav President Josip Broz Tito, picked up Carter's fever toward the Kremlin in a speech last month in Charleston, S.C.

"If a good initiative appears anywhere, we are always ready to respond to it," the Soviet leader said, adding that the Soviet Union constantly seeks peace in its foreign policy.

Attempting to thaw the chill in U.S.-Soviet relations brought on by his human rights crusade.

Carter offered to clarify some of his human rights statements to show the campaign is not aimed solely at the Soviets.

"Compared with the previous moves by the U.S. administration, these statements sound positive," Brezhnev said. "If there is a wish to translate them into the language of practical deeds, we will willingly look for mutually acceptable solutions."

Carter in his Charleston speech said there had been "negative" Soviet comments about his proposals for limitation of nuclear arms and "about our more general relations."

"If these comments are based on a misconception of our motives, we will redouble our efforts to make them clear," Carter said. "But if they are merely designed as propaganda to put pressure on us, let me say that we will persevere."

Pravda, the Soviet Communist party newspaper, indicated on Aug. 3 that the Kremlin was pleased with the Carter's remarks.

"Some of the theses of the Charleston speech can be assessed as positive," it said. It praised Carter's reaffirmation of the importance of U.S.-Soviet cooperation in preventing war and in solving world problems and his statement that the two nations have important interests that coincide.

Tito, who is enroute to North Korea and China, arrived in Moscow Tuesday for his first visit to the Soviet capital in four years. Brezhnev welcomed the World War II guerrilla chieftain who successfully defied Stalin as the patriarch of the nonaligned nations and said in a dinner speech Tuesday night: "It is important to step up cooperation between the socialist (Communist) countries and the movement of nonalignment."

Estate Goes For $825,000

NEW YORK (AP) — Hammersmith Farm, the lush waterfront estate where John F. Kennedy wooed and won his Jacqueline, has been sold to an Irish-American lawyer, Edward Sughrue, who plans to open it as a museum honoring the assassinated president. The price was $825,000.

This Caddy Has Kitchen Sink, Too

SAN DIEGO (AP) — Louis Maltar has a shower, kitchen sink, electric stove and refrigerator, all in his Cadillac. The solid old car gets only 10 miles to the gallon but inside, it carries: A telephone, a tape recorder, a public address system, a chemical toilet, a washing machine and a television set.

Maltar bought the car new in 1947. The Detroit native who operated a garage in San Diego until retirement says he has spent $75,000 customizing it. "There's nothing to add now — only wings," he said in an interview Sunday. "But, it's too heavy to fly."

Troopers To Seek Burglary Charges

By JOHN DYE
South Berrien Bureau
NEW BUFFALO — State police at New Buffalo said they would seek charges of breaking and entering, plus safe burglary today against two Joliet, Ill., men.

The charges stem from the alleged theft of a safe from a restaurant east of here, troopers reported.

The two men have already been booked at the Berrien county jail on unrelated charges. They were identified as Larry Couch, 21, booked on a charge of carrying a concealed weapon, and Steve Sprinkle, 19, booked on a charge of possession of marijuana.

Neither man had been booked by late this morning on the safe burglary charge which police said would be sought in connection with the alleged theft of a safe from the Golden Door restaurant located on US-12.

Troopers said the pair was arrested about 12:30 a.m. when police stopped to investigate an auto parked along US-12 near the restaurant. A switchblade knife and about an ounce of suspected marijuana were confiscated, police said.

Some two hours later, an open door was discovered at the restaurant. Police said soon afterwards an unopened safe from the restaurant was found nearby in bushes off US-12.

Police said it appeared unsuccessful attempts had been made to pry open the safe which contained about $250 in cash. A third man believed to have been with the pair is also being sought for questioning, police said.

Police Probing Truck Fire

NEW BUFFALO — A semi-truck tractor involved in an accident just east of New Buffalo Tuesday morning was destroyed in a fire here early today, city police here said.

Cause of the fire, reported about 3:20 a.m., is unknown and remains under investigation, police said. Police estimated the loss at between $40,000 and $50,000.

Police said the truck was parked in the lot of Hildy's Amoco service station, 30 West Buffalo street, New Buffalo city firemen doused the blaze.

The truck owner, Marvin Baldwin, 41, Hammond, Ind., was injured at 3:38 a.m. Tuesday when the truck crashed on an I-94 exit ramp just east of the city. Baldwin was treated and released from Memorial hospital, Michigan City, Ind.

Youths Complete Summer Education

Fourteen economically disadvantaged Berrien county youths have completed a summer remedial education program at Lake Michigan college under sponsorship of the Berrien Youth Service Bureau (YSB).

The 14 were among 30 who started the eight-week "Youth Goes to Summer School" program, which offered remedial reading, communications and attitudinal training on living.

Dynsdale Spence, YSB director, said the youths took morning classes at LMC and spent the afternoons in public service jobs. The program was funded by the federal Comprehensive Employment Training Act (CETA).

The graduates maintained at least a 2.0 (C) average, and two had perfect 4.0 averages.

The classes were coordinated by LMC's division of continuing education and the Institute of professional and paraprofessional studies.

Katherine Turner, assistant to the associate dean of community services at LMC, told the students during award presentations that they had a greater responsibility to be successful because they had been given the opportunity to learn.

New Buffalo Schools Will Open On Sept. 6

NEW BUFFALO — The New Buffalo public schools will begin classes for all students with a half-day session Tuesday, Sept. 6, according to Supl. Walter Schwarz.

Students in grades 7-12 will attend from 8 to 11 a.m., and elementary students (K-6) from 9 a.m. to noon.

On Wednesday, Sept. 7, school will be in session for a full day with students in grades 7-12 going from 8 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. Students in grades 1-6 will be in session from 9 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. Kindergarten parents will be notified as to what session their children will attend. Registration for students new to the system is being conducted now at both the elementary and high school.

Lunch will begin Wednesday, Sept. 7. Cost is the same as last year at 45 cents per meal for high school students and 40 cents for elementary students.

VERY EERIE JOB: Robert Schueler, Erie, Pa., tombstone salesman uses divining rods to locate graves in abandoned potter's field. Workmen, rear, start task of removing nearly 600 known bodies from grave, which is site of industrial park. Divining rods cross when over grave, and are parallel when over open ground. (AP Wirephoto)

Divining Rods Pinpoint Graves In Old Cemetery

ERIE, Pa. (AP) — Excavators are using divining rods and earth moving machinery to exhume the remains of hundreds of paupers buried generations ago at the site of a proposed industrial park.

Workmen began Tuesday to open the graves in the overgrown Erie County Poorhouse graveyard that was sold 37 years ago as a vacant lot. It all started, the records say, when more than 600 poor folk — among them "a disagreeable old Irishman," an "old tramp" and "a perfect idiot" — were buried in the graveyard between 1878 and 1918.

Grave markers have disappeared, and the workers' only clues are stakes planted where expert gravefinder Robert Schueler says bodies should be.

Two rods in Schueler's hands snap up and cross each time he passes over a buried object.

"To look at it, you'd think it was fake," said undertaker Merle Wood, who was hired to move the bodies.

"But I have to believe him, because I don't have any other way to find the graves."

Wood said Tuesday, eight graves have already been discovered. They, and others found later, will be reburied at a site 20 miles away, near the Erie County Hospital.

The cemetery had pretty much been forgotten until developer Robert Ferrier decided to build an industrial park. People then began to question just what had happened to the Potters' Field.

"I guess it was forgotten more than anything else," said Erie County Orphans Court Judge James B. Dwyer, who authorized the disinterments.

"Half the people we talked to thought that the graves had been moved," said Ferrier. "No one seemed to know just where they had been," he added.

Erie Morning News reporter Jeff Pinski searched through musty county records and found a handwritten register of the 600-plus burials. "There was no other record," he said. "Nobody believed it."

The document was a highly personal narrative of the deaths of poor people around the turn of the century.

James R. was described in the records as a "kind old man,"

John H., as "out of his mind." He died of starvation in 1880.

Some people died of a "general wearing out." But John M., 94, died when he fell overboard while rowing with his girlfriend. He had been drinking.

The county launched an investigation following the newspaper's disclosure and called in Schueler, who confirmed the report.

Wood says it will take a month to complete the project. Meanwhile, Ferrier and his partners are two years behind in their plans.

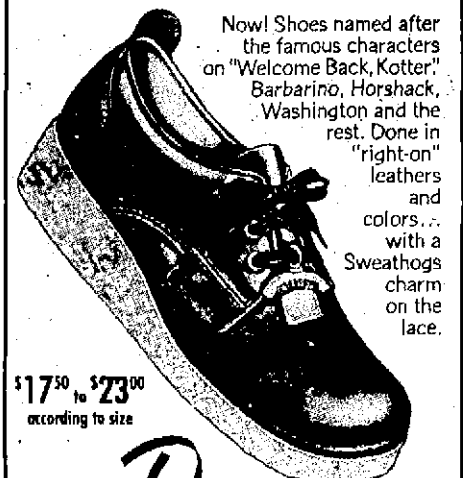

"Needless to say, we've all taken a ribbing," he said. "But we're still hoping to some day build an industrial park."

Woman Joins Fair Board

LANSING, Mich. (AP) — Marjorie Snyder of Escanaba has been appointed to the Upper Peninsula State Fair Board by Gov. William Milliken. Mrs. Snyder will serve for a term expiring May 24, 1982. She succeeds Frank Bender of Escanaba, who resigned. Milliken also announced the appointment of James Piele of Canton to the state Emergency Preparedness Advisory Council.

Benton Murder Suspect Demands Court Hearing

Norman S. Rodgers, 32, of 394 Linden avenue, Benton township, was jailed without bond yesterday after his arraignment in Berrien Fifth District court on an open murder charge and a charge of assault with intent to commit murder.

Rodgers demanded a preliminary examination on both charges when arraigned before Judge Hugh Black.

The charges stem from a shooting incident that left one man dead and another wounded at 1087 McAllister avenue, Benton Harbor, about 2:15 a.m. yesterday.

Pronounced dead on arrival at Mercy hospital, Benton Harbor, was Chester Tucker, 27, of 785 Wauceda avenue, Benton Harbor. He was taken to the hospital with a gunshot wound in the chest.

Reported in "fair" condition at the hospital with gunshot wound in the right arm was James Wade, 38, of 1087 McAllister.

The two shooting victims were standing on the porch with several other people when a man on the street fired two shots from a rifle into the group, witnesses told police.

The house is owned by Margaret Hatchett, according to Det. Sgt. Elmer Rhodes. Mrs. Hatchett is the grandmother of Martha Wade, whom Rhodes identified as Rodgers' common law wife.

James Wade, who was wounded, is the brother of Martha Wade, Rhodes said.

The detective said police learned after questioning Rodgers and several witnesses that Rodgers came to the grandmother's house about 2:15 a.m. looking for Martha Wade. The couple had argued earlier in the evening and she had left him, according to Rhodes.

Rodgers was taken into custody after the shootings when a car was stopped on Martin Luther King drive. Two other people in the car were released.

Health Care Information Awaits Those Who Dial

Residents of western Michigan may receive free health care information over the telephone. The program is called Tel-Med.

It is a free 24 hour-a-day program providing telephone access to a comprehensive library of concise, accurate, physician-approved 3 to 4-minute tape recordings on 119 health care topics.

By calling 349-4721 at Kalamazoo, the individual will reach an operator who will connect him with the pre-recorded tape message of his choice. Tape subjects and numbers are available through tape guides being distributed through area pharmacies, health and social service agencies, public schools and doctor and dentist offices.

The calls are completely anonymous. Thus callers may feel free to request tapes on matters they might otherwise be embarrassed to discuss. This may be a teenager who fears venereal disease or pregnancy, a man considering vasectomy, the parents of a child with pinworms or a woman facing menopause. All these subjects and many more are covered in the Tel-Med tape library.

Purposes of the Tel-Med program are to provide the community at large with easy access to brief, accurate and specific information about health, to help physicians and dentists and their patients save time they usually spend in telephone conversations about health, and to enable the public to be better prepared to describe an illness or appropriate symptoms to the physician. However, it is cautioned that Tel-Med is not to be used in any emergency or to diagnose an illness or to replace a doctor or dentist.

The Tel-Med program in western Michigan is being sponsored by: the Kalamazoo Academy of Medicine, Blue Cross-Blue Shield of Michigan, Bronson Methodist hospital, Borgess hospital, Bronson Clinical Investigational unit, the Kalamazoo Valley Dental society, the American Cancer society/Kalamazoo unit, the Kalamazoo Heart unit of the Michigan Heart association, and the Michigan Lung Association.

The program was developed initially by the members of the San Bernardino county, California, Medical society in 1972. From that beginning more than 90 Tel-Med programs have begun across the United States with more scheduled for the near future. In the areas where the program is well established, Tel-Med has proved to be very popular with both the public and medical professionals. People have accepted the program with great enthusiasm nationwide, calling the Tel-Med numbers approximately 300,000 times a month. Presently the local Tel-Med will provide information in areas such as children, cancer, smoking, respiratory disease and numerous others. As response to the program increases and as needs dictate, additional tapes will be added to the program.

Individuals desiring a tape guide brochure may visit a distribution location or send their request along with a stamped self-addressed envelope to the Kalamazoo Academy of Medicine, 431 South Rose, Kalamazoo, Mich. 49001.

Two Vandalism Suspects Arraigned

Two 17-year-old boys accused of vandalizing the Andrews University science complex Monday night were arraigned in Berrien Fifth District court yesterday on charges of breaking and entering and malicious destruction of property over $100.

Demanding preliminary examinations on the charges were Robert J. Baldwin, of 2608 St. Joseph avenue, Berrien Springs, and Mike D. Howe, of 2802 Rangeline road, Niles.

Judge Hugh Black set a $5,000 bond for Howe and released Baldwin on a $2,500 personal recognizance bond.

Berrien Springs village-Oronoko township police also took into custody a 16-year-old boy in connection with the incident. He was to be petitioned into juvenile court on similar charges, police said.

Police said damage to the complex was estimated at $200 to $250. The damage included broken glass, a drinking fountain ripped from the wall and torn curtains and broken rods.

In other court actions yesterday, Leon Dyer, 17, of 442 Pipestone street, Benton Harbor, demanded a preliminary hearing on a charge of breaking and entering the medical center building at 808 Pipestone Aug. 14. He failed to post $5,000 bond and was jailed.

Dyer was arrested by Benton Harbor police Monday night following an investigation. Another man accused of participating in the break-in, Gerome Randolph, 17, of 1158 Columbus avenue, Benton Harbor, was arraigned Monday on the same charge.

Richard A. Martin, 25, of 318 Hignman Park road, Benton township, demanded a preliminary hearing on a charge of larceny by conversion over $100. He is accused of converting to his own use a water heater owned by Ace Plumbing Co., St. Joseph.

Robert D. Baker, 33, of 5278

Tilly road, Stevensville, demanded a hearing on a charge of receiving and concealing property over $100 — a 20-horsepower outboard motor reported stolen July 10 from 912 Market street, St. Joseph.

A co-defendant in the case, Cyril E. Miles Jr., 23, of 3320 Lake Shore drive, apartment 2, St. Joseph, was bound over to Circuit court for trial on a charge of breaking and entering the house at 912 Market street.

Also bound over was Scott O. Early, 17, of 1202 State street, St. Joseph, on charges of breaking and entering St. Joseph high school Feb. 20 and malicious destruction of property at the building over $100.

Sentenced to pay a fine and costs of $125 was Fred Williams, 53, of Battle Creek, for carelessly carrying a .25-caliber pistol — reduced from carrying a concealed weapon — on I-94 in Benton township July 28.

Hazel M. Williams, 47, of Vincennes, Ind., was sentenced to pay $200 for fleeing arrest and $75 for reckless driving in St. Joseph Aug. 16.

Also sentenced were: Robert E. Needler, 49, of 1101 State street, St. Joseph, $150 for impaired driving, second offense, in St. Joseph July 11. Gary M. Mueller, 24, of Orleans, Mich., $50 for carrying an unlicensed shotgun in a car in Lake township May 16.

Dennis E. Zeek, 22, of 437 East Main street, Hartford, $125 for shoplifting two bottles of liquor and some candy from Hilltop Foods, Coloma township, July 21.

Mary Hogan, 20, of 527 East Main street, Benton Harbor, $32 for making an obscene phone call to Hattie Taylor Nov. 11.

James Kelley, 32, of Box 157 Twinline road, rural Benton Harbor, five days jail and $205 for driving with a suspended license, second offense, in Benton township Aug. 15.

Sentenced for driving while under the influence of intoxicants were: David B. Mathews, 53, of Michigan City, Ind., and Arthur Williams, 38, of Chicago, each $155 or 30 days. Also, James H. Swope, 34, of Box 449, 82nd avenue, Coloma, $152 and 90 days probation.

Sentenced for impaired driving were Wayne B. Holleman, 44, of South Bend, $165; Margaret C. Stewart, 18, of Michigan City, $105; and Steven W. Schroeder, 20, of 345 South Smith street, New Buffalo, $105 or 20 days.

Elvis Presley Is Dead At 42

was probably dead when he left the house."

The doctor said attempts to revive Presley, who appeared in 31 films — including "Love Me Tender," "GI Blues," and "Jailhouse Rock," — continued because of a slight chance life still existed in his body.

"The reason we continued to resuscitate him was his pupils were constricted," the doctor said at a hospital news conference after an autopsy. "Usually in death, there's not enough oxygen and the pupils dilate."

"Heartbreak Hotel," the first hit for Presley, was released in January 1956. It was one of 35 records that sold more than one million copies, including "Hound Dog," "All Shook Up" and "It's Now or Never."

Booming record sales and overflowing audiences at personal appearances made the entertainer who combined country-western, gospel and rhythm and blues one of the world's wealthiest entertainers.

When TV brought "Elvis The Pelvis" into millions of homes, church and parents' groups denounced the raw sexuality of his performance as a bad influence on children. His gyrating hips were only mildly suggestive compared to many of today's rock performers, but on the Ed Sullivan Show, he was shown only from the waist up.

"Bilsey" Mott, who worked as a bodyguard for Presley for 15 years, said the last time he saw the aging star was during a 1975 Presley concert in Tampa, Fla., Mott's home.

"I went backstage, and when I walked out, I said to my wife, 'Elvis is dying.' He looked so much like his mother did just before she died."

Presley's mother, Gladys, died of heart trouble at age 42 on Aug. 14, 1958.

Vernon Presley, the star's father, was taking his son's death "very badly," said family friend Dr. Elias Ghanem in Las Vegas.

Presley, whose new single, "Way Down," was at the top of Billboard's latest list of Hot Country Singles, was to have flown to Portland, Maine, Tuesday night to begin an 11-day tour of the Northeast and South.

Presley had played racquetball at his private court until almost 8 a.m. Tuesday.

Word of Presley's death swept across this city where he had lived since leaving his birthplace, Tupelo, Miss., at the age of 13.

Mayor Wyeth Chandler ordered flags in the city lowered to half-staff in memory of Presley.

Elvis was working as a truck driver after graduating from Memphis' Humes High School when he walked into Sam Phillips' office at Sun Records in 1955 to record "Blue Moon of Kentucky." The recording became a hit.

His career was largely the creation of a promotional genius, Col. Tom Parker. Presley made his appearances on the Ed Sullivan show after Parker became his manager.

A television rating service gave Presley 82.6 per cent of the nation's TV audience for his first Sullivan appearance in 1956 in 78.8 per cent for President Eisenhower's acceptance speech on three networks.

"When I found Elvis, the boy had nothing but a million dollars worth of talent," Parker said once. "Now he has a million dollars."

When Presley was drafted in the 1950s, Parker capitalized on it — issuing a record album with the soldier-star's picture in uniform. He let photographers record the Army's shaming of the famous locks, a major media event that generated front page publicity around the world.

His fan club once had 400,000 members in the United States, Canada, Mexico, Cuba, England, France and Australia.

In Germany he met the daughter of an Air Force officer, Priscilla Beaulieu. They were married in 1967 and divorced in 1973. They had one daughter, Lisa Marie, 9.

Presley, who had rarely emerged from his mansion grounds in recent years except for performances, had been hospitalized at Baptist in April when he cut short a tour in Louisiana and returned to Memphis.

At that time, he was said to be suffering from exhaustion and intestinal flu.

In the past two years, he had also been hospitalized for eye problems and for what doctors described as a twisted colon.

Private funeral services were to be held at 2 p.m. Thursday at Graceland with entombment at Forest Hills Mausoleum, about two miles from the mansion.

BH Counterfeiting Charge Humorous To U.S. Judge

KALAMAZOO, Mich. (AP) — A 30-year-old man who duplicated a dollar bill 31 times on a copying machine and fed the copies into a laundromat coin changer has been sentenced to three years probation. The defendant — Eugene Whiteside of Benton Harbor — was charged with receiving counterfeit money with the intent to pass it, a felony that could have added up to 10 years in jail and a $5,000 fine.

Bul U.S. District Court

Judge Noel P. Fox, seeing humor in the case, instead imposed only probation. "He was so amateurish, and just the thought of him standing at the Xerox machine..." Fox said Monday, as the sentence trailed off into laughter. "I said, 'My God, this is a dumb thing.'"

Fox said he also was swayed by a report from Whiteside's probation officer, who asked that the defendant be given a break. Out of work, out of money and trying to go to school, Whiteside also recently married a woman with six children, whom he is taking good care of, the judge said. "I wanted to give him a chance and keep the family together," Fox explained.

Whiteside was arrested when he kept feeding the money changer at the laundromat, despite a request by the attendant that he stop before he emptied the machine. When the attendant opened the machine, he found the 31 dollar-bill copies.

EUGENE WHITESIDE
Humorous for judge

schoolhouse door."

Johnson also ruled that the Alabama prison system amounted to cruel and unusual punishment and violated the Constitution.

He threatened to shut it down unless the Alabama Legislature came up with more money for improvements.

Wallace and the legislature grudgingly obeyed his order, which became a beacon for prison reformers pressing similar suits elsewhere.

In another pioneering decision, Johnson was among the first federal judges to extend constitutional protection for the rights of patients in state mental institutions.

He issued a detailed list of required improvements, ranging from individual psychiatric treatment programs to the amount of living space each patient should have.

His orders involved him so deeply in the affairs of state government that some Alabama have said he is the real governor.

The names Carter and Bell rejected for the director's job had been culled by the citizens committee from a list of some 200 applicants.

The panel recommended five names: John J. Irwin Jr., associate justice of the Massachusetts Superior Court; Sheriff William Lucas of Wayne County, Mich.; Los Angeles County Dist. Atty. John Van de Kamp; Neil J. Welch, the agent-in-charge of the bureau's Philadelphia office; and U.S. District Court Judge Harrington Wood of Chicago.

Wood later asked not to be considered.

Carter and Bell also interviewed the FBI's chief counsel, John A. Mintz, for the job.

The President and Bell have wanted Johnson to join the administration for some time.

Shortly after Carter was elected, he and Johnson met in Atlanta amid speculation that Carter was considering the judge as his attorney general. Johnson said afterward that he had only suggested to Carter who he might name to head the Justice Department.

Last winter, Bell twice offered Johnson the post of deputy attorney general but Johnson could not be persuaded to leave Alabama and his judgeship.

Ex-Benton Harbor Man Electrocuted

Luther Floyd Warren, 40, of 511 S. Sherman street, Pana, Ill., formerly of Benton Harbor, was electrocuted last Friday in Decatur, Ill., while working for the J. J. Borders Construction Company of Pana, Ill. Decatur police said Mr. Warren was helping maneuver a large metal cement bucket attached to a crane when the boom of the crane struck a high voltage power line.

He was born March 17, 1937, in Poplar Bluff, Mo. He was a graduate of Benton Harbor high school and while residing in Benton Harbor had been employed by Twin City Container Company.

Surviving are his widow, the former Reba Collier, to whom he was married on Feb. 14, 1964; a son, Vernon, at home; three daughters, Tracey, at home, Mrs. Diana Kay, Pana, and Mrs. Cheryl Gordon, Pana; his mother, Mrs. Hazel Sliter, Benton Harbor; his father, James Warren, Ramsey, Ill.; a brother, Frank, Pana; two half-sisters, Mrs. Janice Ortman and Miss Sherri Warren, both of Taylorville, Ill.; two half-brothers, Jimmy Warner, Taylorville and Leon Sliter, Cedar Rapids, Iowa; two stepbrothers, Leo Sliter, Benton Harbor and Clifton Sliter, Poplar Bluff; a stepsister, Mrs. Robie Ishmael, Benton Harbor.

Woman Hurt In Mishap With Truck

Benton township police reported a woman sustained apparently minor injuries Tuesday when she stepped into the side of a moving truck trying to avoid a dog that had frightened her.

Police said Elbet Jean White, 25, of 163 Collax, Benton Harbor, was treated and released from Mercy hospital after she stepped into the side of a truck driven by Henry Pierce, of 6890 Sunset drive, Coloma.

The woman reported she was walking on the east side of Crystal avenue near Napier avenue when she was frightened by a dog and stepped into the street, hitting the side of the northbound Pierce truck which was traveling slowly at the time.

Berrien sheriff's deputy John Clark said a woman who suffered cuts in a one-car crash in Watervliet township Tuesday was lodged in the county jail on a charge of driving under the influence of liquor.

Clark reported Ruby Lee Clayton, 39, of Route 2, Red Arrow highway, Watervliet, was treated and released from Watervliet Community hospital after the car she was driving left eastbound Red Arrow highway west of Hennessey road and ran into a ditch.

The officer said the woman was also charged with reckless driving after the 7:20 p.m. accident.

Niles Man Unhurt In Smashup

BURLINGTON, Mich. (AP) Albert Franklin, 58, of Branch County, was killed Tuesday when he ran a stop sign on his motorcycle and crashed into the side of a truck, state police said.

The truck driver, Versal Kelley, 58, of Niles, was not injured.

'Blues' Board Bill Promised

LANSING, Mich. (AP) — A state lawmaker wants to give consumers majority control of the Michigan Blue Cross-Blue Shield board of directors, and will introduce legislation to that effect this fall. State Rep. Perry Bullard, D-Ann Arbor, said his bill would require two-thirds of the board to be elected by subscribers to the Blues' health insurance plans. The bill also would require all meetings of the board to be open to the public. Bullard announced his bill — first introduced in the 1973-74 legislative session — on the heels of a controversy involving a Blues board member who was dumped from the board. The state filed suit Monday to block the removal of Charles Chomet, a consumer advocate who has criticized Blues' management. Chomet's official ouster was delayed by a court order pending a hearing on the case. Bullard said the "incredible arrogance" of the board in rejecting Chomet's reappointment made his legislation necessary.

Two Held In Cass On Weapon Counts

CASSOPOLIS — Two men were arrested by Cass county sheriff's deputies yesterday and booked on charges of carrying a concealed weapon.

Booked were Thomas Wamaker, 31, Raleigh, N.C., and William Melillo, 30, Irvington, N.J., deputies reported.

Deputies said the arrests stemmed from the apparent abduction of a three-year-old girl that resulted from a child custody fight between a husband and wife. No charges have been filed in connection with the alleged abduction, deputies said.

Deputies said Robert Wilson, Short street, Jefferson township, reported the girl was taken from his home at gunpoint by five people yesterday about 10:30 a.m. Wilson said he was caring for the child at the request of her father. The girl has been returned to Wilson, deputies said.

A car similar to one Wilson said left his home southwest of Cassopolis with the youngster, was stopped later on US-31 south of Niles, deputies said. Howard township police, who stopped the car, seized a .25 caliber automatic pistol, Cass deputies reported.

Deputies identified the girl as Kathleen VandyGriff. Deputies said her father was away during the incident and his name was not known. Her mother was identified as Deborah VandyGriff, Linden, N.J. The girl was 3 years old.

Bank Held Up For 3rd Time!

BLOOMINGDALE — Two armed bandits robbed the Citizens Trust & Savings Bank here of an undetermined amount of cash late this morning, state police at Paw Paw said.

The pair, described as white males, escaped heading north in a blue Ford Mustang. It was the third time in the past year-and-a-half that the bank has been robbed. It was not immediately known if anyone was injured in the armed robbery.

Center Needs $200,000

WYOMING, Mich. (AP) — A civic group is trying to raise $200,000 by Dec. 1 to keep open a poison prevention center covering 12 Western Michigan counties. The fundraising drive, started Tuesday, is needed since the center, located at Blodgett Medical Center, lost its federal aid earlier this year. Last year, center officials said it handled almost 15,000 cases or questions about poisoning. Dr. Daniel McCoy, a director, said the center has remained open through a $40,000 loan from the hospital and a grant from the Grand Rapids Foundation. The center asked the U.S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare for $220,000 this year to continue operations in Kent, Montcalm, Ionia, Ottawa, Allegan, Lake, Muskegon, Mason, Oceana, Newaygo, Oshtemo and Mecosta counties.

Split Vote Law Upheld

LANSING, Mich. (AP) — Voters are not disenfranchised by a state law requiring computers to toss out primary election ballots when voters split their tickets, the state Court of Appeals says. The appeals court affirmed a lower court ruling against Mary Zaleski, an unsuccessful candidate for Clinton Twp. supervisor in Macomb County's August 1976 primary election. Ms. Zaleski argued that 1,465 votes of the 8,957 cast in that election were rejected because of crossover voting or ticket-splitting. That is when several offices are on the ballot and a voter casts votes for candidates of more than one party. She alleged that a state law requiring automatic vote tabulators to reject ticket-split ballots compromises the right to vote. It is justifiable, she said, only when a "compelling state interest" is served. But the appeals court said a compelling state interest was served by the law. It said the purpose of the state's primary election is to select candidates for each political party, and the law helps preserve that purpose.

Berrien Youth Fair Launched

By JOE HERMAN
Staff Writer

An overcast sky threatened rain but only delivered an occasional sprinkle Tuesday at the opening day of the Berrien County Youth Fair.

Not even the weatherman could have spoiled the day for Jeff Spitzer of Berrien Springs who walked away with grand fair. An attendance figure of 26,668 persons was reported for the day. Fair Secretary Barbara Kolm said this was down from the opening day record of 31,886 set last year. The crowd yesterday was made up heavily of school-age youngsters who traditionally get free admission on opening day.

champion showmanship and open reigning championship in the horse judging competition. Spitzer and his horse lasted through a grueling 13 hours of judging to win the two categories. This is the third year in a row that Spitzer has won the reigning award at the Susan Shreve of Niles won the reserve grand champion showmanship award, the third major award given at yesterday's horse judging competition.

Earlier in the day Pam Durm, 17, of Niles was awarded the grand champion market steer award for her 1,220 pound Simmental Angus named "Bud." The grand champion was selected by Judge Myron Danner, Michigan State university herdsman, from an original field of over 100 cattle. Miss Durm won a reserve championship at last year's fair.

Reserve grand champion market steer award went to Fred Foster of Niles. Fred was a winner in the Charolais class. Most of the steers shown yesterday will be auctioned off Friday at 1 p.m. in the grandstand.

Foster's cousins, Scott, Bruce and D'Nece Foster, combined to win six of the 18 other awards given in the beef competition. Scott won champion Angus and champion Shorthorn awards, D'Nece won reserve champion Angus female and champion Angus steer, and Bruce won champion crossbred steer and beef showmanship, an award won last year by brother Scott.

Home economics and crafts displays were also judged at the fair yesterday. Kriston Haase of Benton Harbor took the grand champion food exhibit award with yeast rolls she had entered, and Michelle Farwell of Berrien Springs won the reserve grand champion honors. Kathleen Keigley, Berrien Springs, and Diana Richardson, Watervliet, won the grand champion and reserve grand champion awards respectively among knitting and crocheting exhibits.

In the rabbit judging yesterday Chris Curtis of Watervliet repeated as the winner of the grand champion show buck award. Champion show doe award went to Jan Totzke, of Berrien Springs.

Other winners in the beef categories include Rodney Jannert of Eau Claire, who dominated the female beef category for the second year in a row. Jannert matched last year's performance with four awards, including champion female of any breed. Bill Burns of Galien won both champion hereford female and grand champion beef female awards.

Champion dairy steer was shown by Lynn Powers of Buchanan, and champion Hereford Steer was won by Alan Stover, Berrien Springs. Susan Sherwood of Niles won the rate-of-gain award for her Charolais steer.

Two Teens Accused Of Having Pot

BERRIEN SPRINGS —

Two teenagers were arrested outside the Berrien county youth fairgrounds here last night and booked at the Berrien county jail on charges of possession of marijuana. Berrien Springs village-Oronoko township police identified the two as Lawrence Nelson, 19, route 1, box 35, Galien, and Ricky Welsh, 18, of 212 Huron street, Buchanan. Police said two small plastic bags containing small amounts of suspected marijuana were seized.

Judge Dismisses Gun Permit Suit

By SCOTT WILLIAMSON
Staff Writer

Berrien Circuit Judge William S. White yesterday dismissed a suit by a Buchanan township man who asked that the township supervisor be compelled to sign an application for a concealed weapons permit.

In denying the quo warranto action, White dismissed the suit of Fred Hanks, 46, of East River road. Quo warranto is a proceeding demanding that a person, usually a public official, show by what right he exercises an authority.

White ruled that Supervisor Kenneth Jones did not act "arbitrarily or capriciously" in refusing to sign the application nor did he abuse his discretion. The judge said Jones testified during the half-day hearing that Hanks displayed "irrational behavior" at township meetings and had "a volatile temper." Jones said he did not feel Hanks was suitable for a permit, White said.

The judge also said Hanks has been convicted in Berrien district court on a charge involving firearms and had also pleaded no contest in district court to a charge of carrying a concealed weapon. District court records show Hanks on Feb. 2, 1976, pleaded no contest to a charge of reckless use of firearms. He was placed on six months probation and assessed fine and costs totaling $70. On Nov. 6, 1974, Hanks pleaded no contest to a cruelty to animals charge. He was assessed fine and costs totaling $50.

Signature by a township supervisor or police chief is the first step necessary in obtaining a concealed weapons permit, according to Berrien Chief Assistant Prosecutor Jeffrey Long. Once the signature is obtained, the application is then submitted to the county concealed weapons permit board for action, Long said.

Hanks originally sought a writ of mandamus to get the application signed. But White noted that action is only used to compel a public official to exercise an administrative act. The judge said the proceeding was later changed to quo warranto since Hanks claimed Jones abused his discretion in refusing to sign the application.

Opposing counsel in the hearing were township Atty. John Spelman and William Lagani, representing Jones, and Buchanan Atty. Charles Herman, counsel for Hanks.

Hanks last year was an unsuccessful independent write-in candidate for Buchanan township supervisor, opposing incumbent Jones.

Bridgman Cleaning Pact Awarded Over Protest

By JOHN DYE
Staff Writer

BRIDGMAN — Despite the objections of a St. Joseph firm, the Bridgman school board last night awarded a contract to ITT Building Services to provide custodial work for the school district. The special meeting vote came after school Atty. Robert Thrun said the board could "waive any irregularities" in the bids submitted for the work. The second bidder, Clean America Corp., St. Joseph, claimed ITT had violated two bid specifications.

Michael Cook, St. Joseph attorney representing Clean America, said after the session there was a "very strong possibility" the firm would file suit to void the board's vote. ITT, of Martinsville, Ohio, was low bidder at $37,968. Clean America, which has provided cleaning service for the district the past seven years, bid $38,965.

The Ohio firm was awarded the work on a voice vote, with board member John Wilk abstaining. Wilk said he felt the school system could do the work itself at less cost. Representing Clean America at the meeting were Ross Hatley, chairman of the firm's board of directors and sole stockholder, Atty. Cook and James Revas, sales manager for the firm.

During the session, Cook claimed ITT violated bid specifications when it did not submit a list of all of its cleaning accounts, and when it failed to include in its bid a provision that either side could cancel the agreement on a seven-day notice. When Cook first tried to speak, he was ruled out of order by Dr. Kenneth Kieft, board president. The attorney was permitted to speak only after Thrun, Cook, Kieft and Supt. David Lechner conferred during a short recess outside the meeting room. When Cook again attempted to speak at the end of the meeting, he was ruled out of order by Kieft. Cook said after the meeting there were several alternative grounds for the potential law suit, including the claimed bid violations by ITT and what he claimed was a violation of the state's new open meeting act by not permitting him to speak at the end of the session.

Clean America submitted a complete list of its cleaning accounts, which Hatley estimated at 75, and included the seven-day provision in its bid, Cook said. ITT, on the other hand, claimed in a letter to Lechner that, "Due to the magnitude of our company and the confidentiality of our business records, we are hesitant to publish a list of all of our revenue base." It originally provided five references and later added four names in the letter sent to Lechner.

ITT also claimed that by saying its bid was offered with "full compliance" with the specifications, the seven-day period was covered. Bids for the work were submitted at the board's July 11 meeting, and tabled at its Aug. 8 meeting until the opinion from Thrun was delivered.

In the opinion, which Thrun discussed last night, the attorney said, "The apparent discrepancies alluded to by the high bidder are insignificant, in my opinion, and may be waived... I do not believe that the high bidder has any legal grounds enforceable in court action... An unsuccessful bidder has been held by the courts of this state not to have any legal standing to sue for failure of being awarded a bid by a school district. The concept is that the taxpayers of the district are the persons benefited by public bids and not the unsuccessful bidders."

In other areas, the board approved paying Holland Construction, St. Joseph, an additional $17,500 for more earthwork at the site of the new middle school now under construction. In a related matter, Lechner was instructed to attempt to obtain $783 of that amount from Burger Engineering, St. Joseph, because of a reported surveying error involved in the additional earthwork at the site.

he board approved tapping into the Lake township water system in order to serve the Hathaway school, at a cost of $375. Members of the "Village Squares" will provide the labor free of cost. Board member Dr. Joseph Rumba was honored by the board because he annually gives free medical checkups to 7-12 students in both the Bridgman and the Immanuel Lutheran schools.

New Buffalo Bidding For $50,000 Grant

NEW BUFFALO — The New Buffalo city council last night approved making application for a $50,000 state grant to help pay for construction of a $100,000 small boat launching facility on the Gallen river here. The council made application to the Michigan Department of Natural Resources bureau of outdoor recreation following a required DNR public hearing on the matter which preceded the council meeting.

The preliminary plans provide for two boat launching pads, a paved parking lot for 50 vehicles, re-location of the toll booth and landscaping of the surrounding area, plus land for expansion.

The project is to be on 3.5 acres of land adjoining the 15½ acres of park area northeast of the Whitlaker street bridge. A parcel of land adjacent to the proposed facility is being donated to the city by Jerry Pals.

The city planning commission will have an opportunity to review the final boat launching facility plans and make necessary changes after preliminary plans have been approved for funding.

William Geisler, planning commission member, stated he felt a 50-car parking lot was inadequate and space for at least 100 vehicles was needed. Leslie Cripps, Berrien Springs, a professional community planner, said the city would have to pay for any additional costs not included in the grant money.

Marx said slips for transient boats will be provided by private marina owners in the area.

In other areas, the council approved entering into a contract with Security Fence Co., Mishawaka, lowest of three bidders to install a fence around the city's water plant and storage tower at a cost of $8,590.

Joyce Vavris, of 720 North drive, sent a letter to city hall charging William Marx, city manager with sex discrimination in job hiring. The letter stated she has filed a complaint with the Department of Civil Rights because she was not hired as a meter reader under CETA funds because of her sex.

Marx said last night she was considered for the job but was not hired because she is going back to college in the fall and he was looking for someone who will continue working for the city throughout the year.

Ronald Farina, was appointed to the city planning commission, filling a vacancy created by the resignation of Patricia Jidday, whose term expires May, 1978.

A request by Carl Krieger, to change zoning of a portion of East Clay street and Jameson street from single family to two family residential was referred to the planning commission. Mr. and Mrs. Lester Rowen plan to build two duplex apartments there at an estimated cost of $55,000 each.

The council received a letter from the New Buffalo Lions club advising them that the Lions club will build a 24 by 50-foot pavilion at the public park with a fire place at each end. Upon completion the facility will be turned over to the city for maintenance and insurance purposes.

Acting as the water board, the council made plans to meet with New Buffalo township officials in regard to providing water to township residents. The decision was made following a letter read from Edward Ohlme, township supervisor, requesting a meeting in the immediate future.

The water board also said the city has never received rental payments from the township for fire hydrants since they were installed 10 years ago in the township. City Clerk Joan Weishaupt said the bill now totals $5,000.

Councilman Carl Keefer said he has been asked by many city residents what city water department employees are doing when they are looking for clean-outs. Marx explained that each property is supposed to have a sewer clean-out (opening) and many do not and others cannot be located.

Chambliss Homer Topples Sox

From ASSOCIATED PRESS

Chris Chambliss has a flair for the dramatic but a poor memory on who's pitching.

The New York first baseman blasted a two-run homer in the bottom of the ninth off rookie pitcher Randy Wiles to give the Yankees a wild 11-10 victory over the Chicago White Sox Tuesday night in a game that saw 12 runs scored in the final two innings.

"I didn't hit it real good," Chambliss said of his ninth-inning heroics. "The short fence helped me."

But Chambliss didn't realize he was hitting against Wiles, who was brought up from the minors earlier this month in place of Chris Knapp. Chambliss thought the pitcher was White Sox reliever Dave Hamilton, who faced one batter in the eighth inning.

"Yeah, I've faced him before," Chambliss said. When told it was Wiles, he replied: "Oh, it wasn't Hamilton. Well, I watched him warm up anyway."

The Yankees had snapped a 4-4 tie in the seventh, then scored four runs in the eighth to take a 9-4 lead. But Jim Spencer slammed his second homer of the game, a two-run shot, to trigger a six-run Chicago rally in the top of the ninth and give the White Sox a 10-9 lead.

Thurman Munson led off the New York half of the ninth with a walk, and one out later, Chambliss connected for his game-winning blast.

In other AL games Tuesday, Boston defeated Kansas City 5-3, Baltimore edged Minnesota 6-5 in 13 innings, California stopped Toronto 7-2, Oakland downed Cleveland 7-3, Seattle nipped Detroit 3-2 and Texas clubbed Milwaukee 11-3.

Boston rallied for its 18th victory in the last 17 games when Butch Hobson drilled a three-run homer and triggered a tie-breaking two-run seventh inning with a single to down Kansas City.

Hobson belted his 23rd homer into the left field screen in the fourth off Kansas City's Mark Littell, making his first start of the season. Then he started the Boston seventh with a single, took second on a sacrifice, moved to third on an infield single and scored on Rick Burleson's single. Fred Lynn's sacrifice fly scored an insurance run.

Doug DeCinces snapped a slump with a single to drive in Eddie Murray with the winning run as Baltimore clipped Minnesota in 13 innings. Murray led off the inning with a double off loser Tom Johnson, 12-5, as Dennis Martinez, 11-6, got the victory in relief.

The Orioles had tied the score 5-5 with a four-run rally in the seventh, capped by Lee May's two-run homer. It was May's 20th homer of the season and his third in four games.

Rod Carew, the AL's leading hitter, had four hits to raise his average to .383. Minnesota's Larry Hise increased his league-leading RBI total to 93 with a sacrifice fly in the fourth.

Texas exploded for six runs in the second inning, sparked by Claudell Washington's two-run double, to roll over Milwaukee. Washington had four hits and knocked in three runs while Bump Wills and Jim Sundberg had two RBIs apiece as Doyle Alexander, 13-7, limited the Brewers to just seven hits.

The victory gave Texas a share of second place in the AL West.

Don Money hit his 20th home run and Cecil Cooper his 14th for Milwaukee.

Jerry Tabb slammed a pair of leadoff home runs and Manny Sanguillen added a solo blast as Oakland won for the second time in its last 18 games and snapped Cleveland's three-game winning streak.

Vida Blue, 11-15, got the complete-game victory as Tabb led off the second and fourth innings with homers. Sanguillen slamed his home run in the second.

Paul Hartzell's three-hit pitching was backed by home runs by Tony Solaita and Bobby Bonds and a two-run triple by Gil Flores as California defeated Toronto, trailing 2-1, Dave Chalk led off the sixth with a walk and Rance Mulliniks was safe on an error. Flores then followed with his triple off the corner field fence.

Solaita hit his 10th home run of the season in the seventh and Bonds belted his 30th in the ninth, tying him for the league's leadership with Jim Rice of the Boston Red Sox.

Jose Cardenal led off the Cuban ninth with a pinch single. Cardenal was forced by Mick Kelleher, and with two outs Greg Gross doubled off reliever Goose Gosage and Kelleher scored on centerfielder Omar Moreno's wild throw which landed in the Pittsburgh dugout.

Larry Bittner then looped a fly ball to short center for what might have been the winning hit, but Moreno made a diving catch and it was extra innings.

Gosage and Dave Ghisli, who had toiled for the Pirates the last six years, were locked in a brilliant relief duel until both were eventually removed for pinch hitters.

The Cubs got to Larry Demery, 5-4, for their unearned winning run in the 15th inning and Willie Hernandez, 6-4, gained the victory.

Mariners' Abbott Sparkles Again

DETROIT (AP) — Somebody should tell Glenn Abbott that he pitches for an expansion team.

He's not supposed to win seven games in a row. That's for aces who play for pennant contenders.

But apparently it doesn't make any difference to the 6-foot-6, right-hander. He scattered 10 hits, nine of them singles, Tuesday night and Bob Sison cracked a two-run homer to lead the Seattle Mariners to a 4-2 victory over the Detroit Tigers.

The outcome snapped a nine-game losing streak for Seattle. Abbott won for the seventh straight time to raise his record to 10-7, while rookie Jack Morris gave up just six hits and fell to 1-1.

"He's been outstanding," Mariners Manager Darrell Johnson said of Abbott, who hasn't lost since June. "Anybody who can win seven games in a row for an expansion team is some kind of pitcher. He's a doubleplay pitcher. He throws that sinker."

Abbott killed rally after rally, getting the Tigers to hit into four doubleplays. They continually hit the ball on the ground. Their lone extra-base hit was Jason Thompson's solo homer in the ninth inning.

"Abbott is a tough pitcher when he's right," conceded Tiger Manager Ralph Houk.

Tiger Tracks

DETROIT (AP) — Jack Morris has made five pitching appearances since the Detroit Tigers purchased him from their Evansville farm club, and he has looked good every time out.

Despite losing a six-hitter, 3-2, Tuesday night to the Seattle Mariners, Morris again impressed Tiger Manager Ralph Houk.

"I thought he pitched a good ballgame," Houk said. "He pitched good enough to win. Ordinarily, you win a game like that."

Houk said at Evansville early in the year Morris was "a five or six inning pitcher. . . . Then he sort of came on all at once. He really came quicker than we could have hoped for. He has really impressed me."

Morris, a 22-year-old right-hander from St. Paul, Minn., was the Tigers' No. 5 draft pick in the regular phase of the June, 1976, free agent draft.

Mark "The Bird" Fidrych played catch for about seven minutes Tuesday to test his ailing right arm. He threw harder than he had at any time since he suffered the injury five weeks ago.

"I still can't throw yet," said Fidrych, who is on the disabled list. Houk said he still doesn't know when Fidrych might be able to come off the disabled list.

Tito Fuentes and Ron LeFlore extended their hitting streaks to 10 and nine games, respectively, with each getting a single against Seattle. LeFlore has hit in 22 of the last 23 games.

Sweet Lou Whitaker, the guy many are saying will be the next Tiger second baseman, was named the Southern League Player-of-the-Month at Montgomery. Whitaker, the Player-of-the-Month in the Florida State League in June last year at Lakeland, is batting .296 with 37 runs-batted-in and 31 stolen bases.

Trustee Named For McLain

MEMPHIS (AP) — A Memphis lawyer has been named trustee of the financial affairs of one-time Detroit Tigers pitcher superstar Denny McLain, in McLain's second trip to bankruptcy court.

Bankruptcy Judge William B. Leffer questioned the two-time Cy Young award winner about his financial status Tuesday before naming David S. Kennedy trustee.

McLain, who came to Memphis in 1975 as general manager of the defunct Memphis Blues of the International League, told Leffer his salary as an advertising account salesman had been garnished by his creditors.

He said he sold his home earlier this year and used the $12,000 proceeds to pay off part of more than $1 million in debts. His creditors also received most of a $95,000 settlement from a Workmen's Compensation claim against the Detroit Tigers, he said.

McLain, who is married and has four children, listed assets of $900 in his bankruptcy petition.

He said he had been able to reduce a $350,000 debt to Campbell Dickey Marketing Co. of Southfield, Mich., to $8,000.

'Y' Crown To Miller's

Miller's Market won its second straight South Branch YMCA softball tournament title by downing Harbor City Systems 8-3.

Harbor City had forced a second game after edging Miller's 11-10.

Bill Astopenla went 3-for-3 and Tony McLain 3-for-4 along with Randy Glass for Miller's in the title game. Larry Merritt was 3-for-4 for the losers.

In the first game, Merritt was 4-for-4.

In a semifinal game, Harbor City tipped Bill's Top 11-10 in nine innings. Fritz Knafel had three hits and Brooks two hits and scored the winning run.

St. Joe Counting On Defense In State Tourney Here

Strong defense has carried St. Joe Legion all season. And coach Mike Wyngarden is counting on that defense to help St. Joe capture the American Legion State Championship this weekend.

The state opens tournament, the first ever in St. Joseph, opens Saturday afternoon at two local fields. Marquette (31-10) will take on Blissfield (37-8) at 1:15 p.m. at Riverview. Taylor (25-6) will battle Troy-Birmingham (25-5) at the same time at Eaton Park.

At 8:15 p.m. host St. Joe will tackle Midland (30-5) at Riverview with the two afternoon games playing at the same time at Eaton.

St. Joe Legion, which has already captured the Blue-Gray title this season, takes a 39-18 record into the tourney. And Thursday's contest will have added significance to Wyngarden, who will be seeking his 200th win with St. Joe.

"The defense will be the key, no question about it," Wyngarden says. "We have a bit of an advantage in that we're playing at Riverview. It's a bigger park than most ballclubs have played in."

"There won't be any cheap home runs at Riverview."

Riverview was also the home park much of the Legion season for St. Joe, a fact which has made defense a must.

"Defense is our strength," Wyngarden says. "We work on defense. Playing in that big ballpark, all we ask of our pitchers is that they get the ball over the plate."

"With that big ballpark there is no sense in trying to strike out a lot of batters. Infielders know that the ball is probably going to be hit to them they're going to be a lot sharper. And when a pitcher has good defense behind him, he's going to concentrate more at throwing the ball across the plate."

St. Joe is averaging less than two errors per game, helping a sparkling 1.76 combined earned run average by the St. Joe pitchers.

Southpaw Mike Collier is the top St. Joe hurler with an impressive 11-2 record. Collier has walked just 17 batters in 102 innings while posting a microscopic 0.35 earned run average. Helping out are righthanders

Paul Knuth (8-3, 1.98 ERA), Ron Hollis (6-3, 1.76) and Bob Stryzinski (5-4, 3.25).

Second baseman Herb Ross is the only .300 batter for St. Joe with a .307 average. Centerfielder Pat Weber (.298), catcher Kurt Felgner (.291) and Knuth (.291) follow closely behind.

Midland will offer formidable opposition, boasting a team batting average of .277 and a combined ERA of 1.80. Midland finished with a perfect 17-0 record in the Bay City Legion League.

Midland won the State Legion Championship in 1967 but had not made it out of the districts since then until this season.

Righthander Bob Lyon heads the pitching staff with an 8-1 record and a 1.43 earned run average. Harvey Krantz, also a righthander, has added a 5-1 mark and 1.13 ERA.

Top batters include catcher

Tony LaRue (.422), second baseman Denny Griffin (.387), and coach Bill McEliff's son Art (.329). Art plays first base, but also did some pitching (2-2, 1.09 ERA). Powerful Blissfield boasts the favorite's role. Coach Larry Tuttle has put together much of the team from his last two high school ballclubs, both of which captured the Class C state championship.

Blissfield was the unofficial state legion winner last year. Garden City, which upended Blissfield in the state championship game, was disqualified for using ineligible players.

Forming the Blissfield pitching staff are righthanders Ray Sott (8-2), Guy Elston (9-1) and Mike Burgermeister (8-1) along with southpaw Dave Frey (9-0).

Blissfield's powerful batting lineup has hit at a combined .302 clip with shortstop Dave Pagel (.423) leading the way. First baseman Fred Ambis (.377), third baseman Dave Wahl (.341), and outfielders Ron Estes (.319) and Steve Cannon (.307) are also hitting above .300.

Troy-Birmingham has won 10 straight and 24 of its last 28.

Lefthander Terry Schultz sports a nifty 12-3 record and has struck out 112 batters in 82 innings. Scott Dear (8-1) helps out on the mound. Catcher Charley Cossey (.388), and shortstop Randy Moon (.370) head the Troy-Birmingham slacks. Third baseman Jeff Buchanan is hitting .300 and drove in six runs to help his team beat Utica 11-7 in the zone finals.

Marquette has southpaw John Schacht (.12-2, 0.77), first baseman Gerard Hale (.350) and shortstop Jim Miller (.340) and little else. But Marquette came through the loser's bracket to win both the district and zone tournaments.

Righthanders Wally Garner (8-1), Bill Lambert (8-3) and Tom Zwolan (5-2) top Taylor, which has won 13 of its last 14 games.

Centerfielder Rick Nelson (.373), shortstop Kevin Kilbiff (.371) and third baseman Brian Leja (.365) make up the heart of the batting order.

After Thursday's first day of action, the remainder of the tourney will be played at Riverview with three games Friday, two on Saturday and the title game set for 1:15 p.m. Sunday.

TENNIS

NEW YORK — Dr. Renee Richards has taken a giant stride toward her goal of competing for the women's singles title at the U.S. Open Tennis Championships.

State Supreme Court Justice Alfred M. Ascione issued a preliminary injunction Tuesday barring the U.S. Tennis Association, the U.S. Open Tennis Championship Committee and the Women's Tennis Association from excluding Dr. Richards, a 43-year-old transsexual, from the U.S. Open because of her inability to pass a sexchromatin test.

In a 13-page decision, Ascione held that there was "overwhelming medical evidence" that the 8-foot-2, 147-pound ophthalmologist, formerly known as Richard Raskind, "is now female."

To demand that Dr. Richards pass the Barr body test in order to be eligible to play in the Open was "grossly unfair, discriminatory and inequitable," Ascione said.

discriminatory and inequitable," Ascione said.

TRACK AND FIELD

BRUSSELS — Steve Williams led an American sweep of the sprint events and New Zealand's John Walker just missed a world 1,500-meter record Tuesday at the Ivo Van Damme Memorial Track Meet.

Walker, the first man to break 3:50 in the mile, won the 1,500-meter race easily in 3:32.7, a half second over the world mark of 3:32.2 held by Tanzania's Filbert Bayi.

Williams led a 1-2-3 U.S. sweep of the 100-meter dash in 10.25 seconds, followed by Bill Collins at 10.54 and Clifford Wiley in 10.55.

Edwin Moses of the United States, the world record holder for the 400-meter hurdles, ran the 400-meter dash and was beaten by Belgium's Fons Brjenbach, who was timed in 45.13 seconds to 45.60 for Moses.

BANGED UP BOW: France crewmen re-hoist their jib after lowering the sail to assess damage after a collision with Australia's Cup trials Tuesday. A large gouge and cracked stem laminations resulted from the mishap. Both yachts protested each other over the incident. (AP Wirephoto)

Collision Costly In Cup Races

NEWPORT, R.I. (AP) — Baron Marcel Bich, who built his fortune making ballpoint pens, shrugged his shoulders and talked about losing another challenge for sailing's most important trophy, the America's Cup.

"It's a game. You win or lose," Bich said. "I think sailing is a fantastic sport. I think it is good for the young. When I sail a 12, I am half-fish, half-land and for me it's fantastic."

The game this time was the semifinals for foreign challengers and France I, the 12-meter yacht which Bich had entered unsuccessfully in 1970 and 1974, was trailing the yacht Australia in the series by a 3-0 margin.

Tuesday was a do-or-die situation for the buron and it was he, who made the wrong move that lost the game. He did it by ramming the yacht Australia broadside at the start and eventually lost by a lopsided 10 minutes, 18 seconds.

It was the widest margin of victory of the America's Cup summer.

The race, however, wasn't officially awarded to Australia until eight hours after it was over. The decision came at 11:30 p.m. at the Lewis Yacht Club where an international sail racing jury had deliberated for three hours.

The ruling, Bich gazed too close to Australia and caused the collision, gouging France I's stem and badly denting three panels on the aluminum-hulled yacht from the land down under.

"We were taking evasive action," said Alan Bond, owner of Australia. "They (the French) made an attempt to avoid the collision." The protest committee of Yacht Club D'Ilyeres, challenger of record, agreed.

That means Australia advances to the foreign finals on Aug. 25 with a perfect 4-0 record in the best four-of-seven series and France I joins France II as a trial horse for anyone who wants to race. The other foreign finalist hasn't been decided.

Sweden's Sverige is locked in a deadly duel with Grel II, eastern Australia's entry in the challenge, with two wins apiece against each other. Sverige evened the score Tuesday by beating Grel II by 53 seconds.

Meanwhile, Atlanta Braves' owner Ted Turner steered 1974 cup defender Courageous to victory Tuesday against Enterprise in the first two races of the New York Yacht Club's defense finals.

Courageous, which never trailed in either race, edged Enterprise by 58 seconds in the initial outing over a 24.3-mile, America's Cup course. The second time he won by 31 seconds on a shortened, windward-leeward course.

"It's like being in a boxing bout," Turner said. "You look for the other guy to give you an opening and then you nail him. That's what we did."

Grel II skipper Noel Robins is taking a day off today. Thus, a duel between Courageous and sister King's Point Syndicate yacht Independence was the only competition in tap.

Brupbacher, Parks Leave Bear Camp

Lions Sign Star Back Hubbard

From ASSOCIATED PRESS.

The Detroit Lions were roaring over the acquisition of running back Marv Hubbard. Howard Twilley was warning the Miami Dolphins not to give away his uniform, and the Chicago Bears were upset over the unexpected retirement of linebacker Ross Brupbacher.

Those were among the major developments Tuesday at the training camps of the 28 National Football League teams.

Detroit, acting like "Paper Lions" in recent years—they have made the playoffs only once in the past 10 seasons—were rejoicing over the signing of the rugged Hubbard to a multiyear contract.

Hubbard, obtained from Oakland after starting with the Raiders for seven years, set the Super Bowl champions' single-season rushing record of 1,100 yards in 1972.

At his home in Tulsa, Okla., where he is recuperating, Twilley said: "I only want to come back if I can play. I don't want to act like I'm giving up, but I'd rather stay in Tulsa if I can't help the team."

"I've had a good career, a long career. It would really bother me to do anything to tarnish that."

Then, he added, "Just tell them (the Dolphins) not to give away my (jersey) number."

Brupbacher, a key player in Chicago's plans after leading NFL linebackers in interceptions with seven last year and starting 12 games after Doug Buffone was injured, stunned the Bears when he walked out of their camp.

A practicing lawyer in Louisiana, Brupbacher apparently has not fully recovered from a knee operation and was upset over being cast in a backup role with Buffone's return.

"Ross felt the knee he had surgery on in the off-season was not as strong as he wanted it," said Bears' Coach Jack Pardee. "He was second-guessing his decision to return this year."

"He felt his play was embarrassing to him and he wasn't contributing. We hope he changes his mind and returns ... He is a quality player."

Veteran wide receiver Billy Parks also walked out of the Bears' camp, apparently ending his hopes for a comeback. He had been out of football for one year.

In other NFL developments: —Strong safety Ray Brown, the National Conference leader in interceptions in 1974, signed a series of one-year contracts with the Atlanta Falcons. The Falcons also placed free agent running back Sonny Orange from Southern Mississippi on waivers.

—Minnesota General Manager Mike Lynn said the way still was open for talks geared to bringing All-Pro guard Ed White back to the Vikings. White announced his retirement because of a contract dispute.

—The Seattle Seahawks said they had withdrawn their latest contract offer to offensive lineman Tom Lynch, their No. 1 draft choice from Boston.

Georgia State Names Coach

ATLANTA (AP) — Roger Couch, a native Atlantan and former assistant basketball coach at Vanderbilt University, has been named head basketball coach at Georgia State University.

Couch had coached high school basketball in Atlanta and at DeKalb Junior College's fifth campus before going to Vanderbilt.

Dodgers Cut Two

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Catcher Kevin Pasley and outfielder Joe Simpson have been optioned to Albuquerque of the Pacific Coast League, the Los Angeles Dodgers say.

Baseball Opens Meetings Today

KANSAS CITY (AP) — Baseball's summer meetings opened today with most of the game's executives hoping to end the two-day sessions early.

"The feeling is the whole thing could wind up by Thursday morning," said a major league spokesman. "But this is uncertain."

The agenda contains several important issues, including a reduction in the number of minor league clubs, dates for a new inter-league trading period and rules governing player tampering and incentive bonuses. But major changes will require approval in a final vote at the annual winter meetings in December.

Until last year the inter-league trading period began five days after the World Series and ended at the close of the winter meetings. This was changed last year to the period from Feb. 15 to March 15, but a study committee will recommend the time be changed to March 1-April 1.

"This would give the clubs a chance to virtually go through all of spring training before the trading deadline passes," said Bob Wirz, director of information for major league baseball.

"But if that amendment passes it will require discussion and negotiation with the Player's Association. They have a lot of stock in what happens to players that late in spring training because of the difficulty it would cause players who are traded that close to the opening of the season."

Major league franchises, currently obligated to operate minor league teams at the AAA, AA and A levels, could halt support of the AA facility under another proposed amendment.

The AA club would be substituted by a complex-type training facility.

Steinbrenner Boils Over After Critic's Pot Shot

By WILL GRIMSLEY
AP Special Correspondent

Just when the volatile situation in the New York Yankees' family room cools somewhat and the boys in pinstripes get back on the winning track, someone takes another shot at owner George Steinbrenner II and the pot starts boiling again.

The latest salvo was served up by one of those slick magazines whose man on the scene called the Yankee boss "bush" and insisted Steinbrenner more than any other factor had to be blamed for the deterioration of morale among the American League champions.

Steinbrenner, said the critic, has robbed the Yankees of their greatest heritage, class, and has sabotaged their pride.

This is a needle that sends the Tampa ship owner right out of his swivel chair and dangerously close to the chandelier of his lavishly appointed quarters at the Stadium.

"Bull!" storms Steinbrenner. "My major sin is that I got involved. Well, all I can say is that if you want to own and run a ball club you better damn well get involved. You damn well better lead or you might as well forget it."

"Look at the successful teams in this business and look at those who don't quite make it. The successful ones are those with strong leadership — involvement — at the top level. Teams like the Chicago Cubs, where the Wrigleys follow a hands-off policy — they don't go anywhere and never will."

In his wild enthusiasm and thirst for a World Series winner, George simply tried too hard — and got stung.

"Still, I don't know of anything I would do differently," he insisted. "I will admit there was some misjudgment on my part about timing but none as far as tactical moves are concerned."

"Let's look at the main issues. One was the addition of Reggie Jackson and Don Gullett from the free agent ranks. Second was the extension of Billy Martin's contract as manager. AND THIRD, THE TRADE OF PITCHER Dock Ellis to the A's for Mike Torrez."

"Do I have any regrets? Not in a million years."

Among the criticisms leveled at Steinbrenner was that he upset the chemistry of his championship team by adding superstar Jackson and Gullett at astronomical salaries, thus sowing seeds of discontent among those athletes who did the job for him in 1976 — the name of Thurman Munson coming quickest to mind.

"We were well aware of the dangers involved — the scrambling of these egos," the Yankee boss said. "We knew it would take time to get all the pieces together. It took longer than we thought."

"However, with talent such as Jackson and Gullett available, we would have been derelict to our fans not to take advantage of it."

Steinbrenner didn't say so, but he reckoned without the ego of his saucy manager, Martin, who first as a Yankee firebrand and later as a manager with Minnesota, Detroit and Texas also was inclined, like Jackson, to vie for attention.

That created internal problems.

"We have to look at the last line," Steinbrenner added. "When I came here four years ago the Yankees were dormant. Last year we won the pennant. Even with our faults, no one can say we are not an exciting team."

"We have drawn more than 1.5 million on the road to date and may yet set a record road attendance of more than 2 million. We are 1.4 million at home. Our television ratings are high. Our concessions are booming. We are sound financially and giving the people a good show."

"If that is bush, what baseball needs is more bush ball clubs."

Undefeated Ausco, Bell Post Victories

Ausco stood as the only unbeaten team left in the Men's Fast Pitch Softball Class C District after play Tuesday night at Plym Park.

Ausco upended Stroh's 4-3 and Michigan Bell edged Misty Acres 2-1 in Tuesday's contests.

Ausco tallied a pair of runs in the sixth inning to rally past Stroh's. Gary Phillips tripled in winning pitcher Len Pratt with the tying run and then scored what proved to be the winner on a single by Larry Bell.

Phillips also had two singles for the winners. Henry Daughtry added three hits and Larry Bennett had two.

Dan Griffith and Marty Liggett collected two hits for Stroh's. Mike Brown belted a two-run homer in the fifth which had given the Aers a 3-2 lead.

Dan Griffith was the big gun in Michigan Bell's win. Griffith homered in the second and drove in what proved to be the winning run with a double in the third.

Doug Thomas and Tom Griffith also had two hits for Michigan Bell. Loren Burkett was the winning pitcher with a six-hitter. Jeff Devereaux collected three hits for Misty Acres. Mike Fletcher was the losing hurler.

In Class D play tonight at Plym Park, Burchett's will face Niles Merchants and Y's Men No. 1 will take on Y's Men No. 2.

Babe's, Hardings Keep Tournament Hopes Alive

Babe's and Hardings kept their title hopes alive in women's fast pitch softball district play Tuesday night.

Babe's nipped Buchanan Automotive 2-1 in Class D action and Hardings ripped Mr. K's 10-4 in a Class C contest. Both games were played at Plungers Park.

Tammy Kraklan pitched a three-hitter in Babe's victory. Babe's broke a 1-1 tie with a run in the seventh to win the game. Melissa Boyard walked, stole second and scored the winning run on a single by Sue Berlin.

Wendy Schwark had two hits for the winners and Patty Couchman collected two for Buchanan. Berri Rauch was the losing pitcher despite also allowing just three hits.

Patty Hoge hurled a three-hitter in Hardings victory.

Kathy Mensinger collected three hits, including a triple, for Hardings. Val Vincent also had three hits and Lisa Mammina and Mary Willie each had two.

Losing pitcher Ann Short had a double and a single for Mr. K's.

In tonight's action, Hardings will face Hackers Orchards at 7 p.m. in a Class C game and Babe's will meet Paris Candy at 8:30 p.m. in Class D play. Both games are set for Plungers Park.

Red-Hot Phils Getting Bounces

From ASSOCIATED PRESS
The Philadelphia Phillies are getting all the bounces these days — even the bad ones.

Supposedly constructed to provide true bounces, the carpet at Montreal's Olympic Stadium turned up a nice kink for the National League East leaders Tuesday night.

The ball off the bat of Dave Johnson hit a seam in left field, skipped by Montreal's Del Unser, skittered to the wall and turned into a two-run triple that helped the streaking Phillies beat the Expos 7-5.

"That was unexpected," said Philadelphia Manager Danny Ozark, "but I guess those are the breaks you get when you are winning."

Johnson's triple highlighted a five-run eighth inning, sending the Phillies on their way to their 13th straight victory and providing them with a 4½-game lead over the Pittsburgh Pirates.

"No one knows how good we can be," said relief pitcher Gene Garber. "We're capable of finishing in first and that's where we'll be in first."

The Pirates dropped further behind the Phillies by dropping a 15-inning, 8-5 decision to the Chicago Cubs. In other National League action, the West-leading Los Angeles Dodgers defeated the San Francisco Giants 3-2.

the Cincinnati Reds turned back the San Diego Padres 5-1; the New York Mets whipped the St. Louis Cardinals 5-1 and the Houston Astros defeated the Atlanta Braves 4-1.

Dusty Baker's run-scoring single capped a two-run rally in the ninth inning that boosted Los Angeles over San Francisco.

A two-out error by third baseman Bill Madlock allowed the tying run to come home after San Francisco's Derrel Thomas had broken a 1-1 tie in the eighth with a homer.

John Montefusco took a 2-1 lead into the ninth but was lifted when Reggie Smith led off with a single. Randy Moffitt took over, and after Ron Cey sacrificed Smith to second, Steve Garvey struck out.

Pete Rose and Dan Driessen each homered to back Tom Seaver's five-hit pitching and power. Cincinnati over San Diego.

Seaver, 13-5, pitched his 12th complete game of the season, his seventh for the Reds, the most by any Cincinnati pitcher.

Since being acquired by the New York Mets in a four-for-one blockbuster trade June 15, Rob Sperring had three hits and drove in one run and two other runs scored on errors as Houston beat Atlanta. Mark Lemongello, 5-12, pitched eight innings for the Astros, scattering 10 hits and working out of a bases-loaded jam in the third after the Braves had scored their run.

The Astros scored their runs on Cesar Cedeno's RBI grounder in the first, throwing errors by shortstop Jerry Royster in the third and third baseman Barry Bonnell in the fifth and Sperring's RBI double in the eighth.

BASEBALL CLOWN: Max Patkin entertains thousands of baseball fans every year but he's not laughing on the inside. "It's a lonely, lousy life, always traveling by yourself," he says. (AP Wirephoto)

Patkin Doesn't Laugh On Inside

OMAHA, Neb. (AP) — Baseball's funny man is not laughing on the inside.

"Max Patkin's job is to make people laugh. But the goose-necked, rubber-faced comedian doesn't enjoy that job as a baseball clown."

"It's a lonely, lousy life, always traveling by yourself," he lamented. "It's the travel that kills me."

Patkin, 57, has been entertaining baseball audiences for 31 years. Now the thrill is gone. For one thing, his act seldom changes. He fills in the blanks of a script before the game and gives it to the public address announcer.

The act is pure slapstick. He wears a too-tiny baseball glove. He dances. He shows the home team how to hit and the umpire throws him out of the game.

He covers himself with dirt in the third base coaching box. On cue, one of the players dumps a bucket of water on him.

He trips the first baserunner who gets a walk. In his catching routine, he calls a conference with the pitcher and lays a wet kiss on the pitcher's ear.

It's all in the script — but the crowd doesn't seem to know the difference and probably wouldn't mind if it did.

"I've been trying to quit for the last seven or eight years," added the recently divorced Patkin said. Why doesn't he? The money, of course, ranging from $200 to $500 an appearance. This season he has booked 75 of them.

While he may not enjoy his job, he's proud of his record. "In 31 years of one-nighters, I've never missed a performance. That's over 4,000 performances covering four million miles," he said.

At a recent Chicago White Sox game in Comiskey Park, Patkin, was introduced by announcer Harry Caray and asked to take a bow. Instead, he hopped atop the dugout and did a dance.

Later Patkin met Kansas City Royals owner Ewing Kauffman, known for his bright sports coats. "I was gonna try and buy it from him," Patkin said, "but it would've made me look like a clown."

Marathon Scheduled

CHICAGO — Top runners from all over the world are expected to race through streets, parks and the lakefront when the first annual Mayor Daley Marathon takes place Sept. 25 here.

An 8 a.m. starting gun will fire runners over a 26-mile, 385-yard flat certified course. This will be the first long distance race ever held in Chicago. Entry fee is $5.

Marathon headquarters are at 919 N. Michigan Avenue, suite 2110, Chicago, 60611, phone 312-642-2721.

SJ McDonald's Leading League

St. Joseph McDonald's took over first place in the Michiana McDonald's league with a pair of wins Sunday.

St. Joe beat LaPorte 20-11 with Tex Standberry pounding three triples and Tom Potts and Heinz Hayden one each. Pat Underwood had five RBIs. Kurt Mead took the win. St. Joe also beat Niles 24-7 with Don Richards slugging two homers and Potts and Hayden one apiece. Mead took the win again.

But Young will get exposure this fall as a contender on a CBS television show known as "The World's Strongest Man Contest."

Events include such competition as a race with a refrigerator on the back of contestants, a foreign car lift and a 750-pound wheelbarrow push.

Young will be in the finals. The other contestants include an Olympic weightlifter and men claiming to be Mr. Universe and Mr. America.

Bobalik New Galien Coach

GALIEN — Mike Bobalik has been appointed new boys track and cross country coach at Galien high school.

Bobalik, 25, is a graduate of Flushing high school and Central Michigan University. He was former girls track coach at Hopkins.

AAA Champ

The AAA squad got a grand slam homer from Phyllis Palmer while wrapping up the South Branch Y women's softball championship with an 8-1 victory over Roti Motors. Sylvia Spencer was the winning pitcher. AAA finished with a 6-2 league record.

Point Champs

Bill Howard and Charles Up-ton defeated Bill White and Joe Geary 6-2, 6-4 to capture the Point O Woods men's tennis doubles club championship.

Wayne State Picked In GLIAC's Poll

Dick Lowry, Wayne State University's successful (23-8-0 in three years) coach, may not have asked for it but he's got it. Lowry's Tartars, whom he predicted would be "a great football team this year," have drawn the overwhelming favorite tag to win the Great Lakes Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (GLIAC) championship in a poll of the six league coaches.

Wayne State, the 1973 GLIAC champ, was chosen to finish ahead of en-runners-up Northwood Institute and Saginaw Valley State College. Hillsdale College was picked for fourth and Grand Valley State College and Ferris State College ran a close fifth and sixth in the coaches' voting.

After successive 8-3, 8-2 seasons, Lowry figures his experienced Tartars could be contenders for national honors. Ten offensive starters are among the 19 regulars back on a roster showing 24 seniors.

Wayne State faces a stiff schedule opening with NCAA Division II runner-up Akron where Lowry used to be an assistant coach.

Unheralded Northwood went 4-1 last year to win its third GLIAC title under Jack Finn. The Northmen shared the 1974 crown with Ferris State. Northwood, ground-oriented and rugged on defense, always is a factor in the title chase.

Recognizing the coaching and recruiting skills of veteran

Frank "Muddy" Waters, Saginaw Valley State was voted to the fifth runner-up perch despite showing only one league victory since starting its football program two years ago. Rival coaches evidently feel this is the season the young Cardinals come of age.

Hillsdale, with plenty of talent at the skilled positions, would rate the league darkhorse according to the poll. Jack McAvoy's Chargers put 222 points on the board last fall, second only to Wayne State's 237.

Graduation ripped 18 starters from a Grand Valley State club which upset playoff-bound Northern Michigan and finished 8-2. Jim Harkema must rebuild quickly to be ready for Bowling Green State in the season opener.

Nick Coso's Ferris State Bulldogs knocked off Wayne State and Grand Valley State last season to join the pair in the runner-up slot. Anything is possible when All-American Charley Evans has the ball. He led NCAA Division III rushers with 1,500 yards.

With another wide-open race indicated, Lowry hopes his fellow coaches are correct. Last year they labeled Grand Valley the favorite with Northwood, the eventual champ, tied for second.

Man Pleads Guilty To Sex Count

By DENNIS COGSWELL
Paw Paw Bureau

PAW PAW — A rural South Haven man pleaded guilty in Van Buren circuit court Tuesday to one count of second degree criminal sexual conduct (indecent liberties). Clyde Strong, 30, route 2, had originally been charged with three counts of first degree criminal sexual conduct (rape) in connection with the alleged sexual molestation of three Covert girls, all under age 13, during a period from last Feb. 15 to March 15. As part of a plea bargain, two of those counts will be dismissed at the time Strong is sentenced.

In other cases, Theodore Hewitt, 47, Mattawan, pleaded guilty to a charge of first degree criminal sexual conduct (rape). The charge grew out of a complaint that two girls, ages 10 and 11, were sexually molested at a trailer park in Mattawan on Dec. 15, 1975.

Patrick R. Kane, 17, Dowagiac, pleaded guilty to a charge of attempting to break and enter a home on Huzzey Lake near Lawton last March 7.

Howard D. Davis, 41, Hartford, pleaded guilty to a charge of driving under the influence of intoxicants, third offense, in Keeler township on Nov. 6, 1975.

Farmhand Guilty Of Sex Charge

By DENNIS COGSWELL
Paw Paw Bureau

PAW PAW — A farm worker was placed on pre-sentenced investigation Tuesday after pleading guilty in Seventh district court to a reduced charge of attempted fourth degree criminal sexual conduct (indecent liberties).

Candido E. Gonzalez, 21, 5295 River road, Sodus, had been taken into custody on Aug. 7, 1976 following a complaint by a 16-year-old Columbia girl that she had been raped near Lawrence. State police at Paw Paw said the girl reported she had been forced into a car earlier in Benton Heights.

Gonzalez was originally charged with first degree criminal sexual conduct (rape). Sentencing was set for Sept. 6.

In another case, Thomas Clark, 21, route 2, 6th avenue, Gobles, was bound over in Van Buren circuit court following preliminary examination on a charge of breaking and entering a coin machine.

The charge stems from the theft of an undetermined amount of change from a coin box at the Wash Daze car wash on M-40 south of Gobles during the last week of July, according to state police.

K-Mart Sales, Earnings Climb

TROY, Mich. (AP) — K-Mart Corp. says second-quarter earnings are up 19.6 per cent over the year-ago period.

Profits were $69.4 million, or 56 cents per share, on sales of $2.33 billion. Sales for the quarter were 18 per cent higher than in the second quarter of 1976.

The company said its pre-tax profit margin was 5.8 per cent for the quarter, a record.

Many Men Are Eligible For Dependent Benefits

The Social Security administration still believes there may be husbands and widowers eligible for benefits under a recent Supreme Court ruling, according to Harry Gelandier, district manager at the Fairplain Plaza office.

Last March the court held unconstitutional the requirement that a man had to prove he was dependent on his wife to get benefits on her record if she retired, became disabled, or died after working long enough under Social Security.

Starting with payments in March 1977, neither men nor women have to prove dependency. "However," said

Gelandier, "any beneficiary presently receiving a higher benefit amount based on his own earnings record than he could receive based on his wife's earnings record would not be eligible."

"Social Security payments may be affected by earnings," Gelandier said. "You can earn as much as $3,000 in 1977 and still get your full Social Security payment. But if you earn over $3,000 Social Security payments are reduced by $1 for each $2 earned. An exception is that for months an individual earns less than $250 or does not perform substantial work in his business, the full benefit can be paid regardless of total earnings for the year."

Men already receiving Social Security benefits who would qualify for more under their spouse's record can only be paid an amount equal to the higher benefit — not both benefits," said Gelandier.

Men who think they may be eligible should get in touch with the Social Security office which is located under Goldblatt's at Fairplain Plaza.

Penalty Is 30 Days Jail

By TOM RENNER
South Haven Correspondent

SOUTH HAVEN — Larry Richard Chambers, 34, of 317 Black River road, South Haven, was sentenced to 30 days in the Van Buren county jail during sentencing in Seventh District court here yesterday on a conviction of attempting to obstruct a police officer.

Chambers was arrested June 20 by South Haven police officers and charged with felonious assault after a man allegedly pointed a gun at officers investigating a domestic complaint.

In another case, James Tincher, 17, of 506 Indiana avenue, South Haven, pleaded guilty to a charge of receiving and concealing stolen property. Tincher was arrested by South Haven police in connection with the possession of a motorcycle believed to be stolen.

Stickup Suspect Grabbed In BH

Benton township police said Tuesday Robbie Lee Robinson, 22, of 2418 Irving drive, Benton Heights, was arrested in Benton Harbor on a warrant charging armed robbery Aug. 9 at a Paw Paw avenue market. He was apprehended at 4:30 p.m. on McAllister avenue after officers received a tip.

Robinson is the third person reported arrested in connection with a 7:30 p.m. armed robbery at Mike's market, 1186 Paw Paw avenue. Rodney Glenn Robinson, 18, and James William Hudson, 19, both of Benton township, were arrested shortly after the robbery, police said.

Patricia Callender told police Aug. 9 two men armed with pistols entered the market while she was working and demanded money, escaping in an auto driven by a third man with $200 cash from a cash register.

Bernard Marosites, 2255 East Britain avenue, told Benton township police Tuesday four magnesium wheels valued at a total of $100 were stolen from the front yard of his home where they had been chained to a tree.

In a second theft, Carl Hunt, of 808 McAllister avenue, Benton Harbor, told township officers a CB radio was stolen from his locked car while the auto was parked at 135 Walnut street. Hunt reported a side window on his car was shattered in the break-in, officers said.

State police from the Benton Harbor post reported they stopped an auto on I-94 in Benton township early today and arrested a woman on charges of carrying a concealed weapon and open intoxicants in a vehicle.

Officers said Carrie L. Clayton, 46, of Detroit, was arrested at 2:35 a.m. on westbound I-94 near Pipestone road after an auto was clocked at 83 miles per hour. They said Carrie Clayton was issued a speeding ticket and was lodged in the Berrien county jail after an open container of liquor and a .357 caliber handgun were found.

TO THE CUSTOMERS OF MICHIGAN GAS UTILITIES COMPANY

On June 3, 1977, Michigan Gas Utilities Company (the Company) filed an application with the Michigan Public Service Commission (the Commission) in Case No. U-5447 requesting accounting and ratemaking authority for the deferral and amortization of the income tax effects of accrued utility revenue and property taxes assessed applicable to future periods. Subsequently, on July 6, 1977, the Company filed a Motion to Consolidate this matter with its application in Case No. U-5457 wherein it seeks authority to file, establish and make effective increased rates for the sale of natural gas and to revise its Purchased Gas Adjustment Clause.

The Company is a Michigan corporation with principal offices at 888 South Telegraph Road, Monroe, Michigan and is engaged in the purchase, transmission, distribution and sale of natural gas to approximately 90,000 customers in southern and western Michigan.

The Company requests that the Commission authorize and direct the Company to adopt accounting and ratemaking procedures for the income tax effects of accrued utility revenues and property taxes assessed applicable to future periods to be included in Account 283 (Accumulated Deferred Income Taxes - Other), as follows:

- (1) To transfer to Account 283 the unamortized amounts of accrued income taxes in Account 238 (Accrued Taxes) related to accrued utility revenues, and Account 174 (Miscellaneous Current and Accrued Assets) related to property taxes assessed applicable to future periods.
- (2) To charge Account 410.1 (Provision for Deferred Income Taxes, Utility Operating Income) and credit Account 283 for income tax benefits arising from the manner in which accrued utility revenue is recognized and property taxes assessed applicable to future periods are deducted for income tax return purposes.
- (3) To credit Account 411.1 (Provisions for Deferred Income Taxes, Credit, Utility Operating Income), and to charge Account 283 each year as the previous year's timing differences reverse.
- (4) To include in cost of service, for ratemaking purposes, the charges and credits to Accounts 410.1 and 411.1, respectively, relating to accrued utility revenue and property taxes assessed applicable to future periods.
- (5) To include in the working capital offset, for ratemaking purposes, the average balance in Account 283 during the test period relating to the income tax effects of unbilled revenues and property taxes assessed applicable to future periods.

periods.

- (6) To exclude from the working capital offset, for ratemaking purposes, the average balance in accrued property taxes during the test period relating to property taxes assessed applicable to future periods.
- (7) To reclassify the balances in Account 283 to accrued income taxes for financial reporting purposes.

The Company represents that, since the issues contained in this matter have an effect on its rates and are a part of the issues presented by it in Case No. U-5457, it believes that the consolidation of Case No. U-5447 with Case No. U-5457 would avoid a duplication of effort, would be time-saving and practical, and in the public interest.

Jurisdiction in this matter is pursuant to 1909 PA390, as amended, MCLA 462.2 et seq.; 1919 PA 419, as amended, MCLA 460.51 et seq.; 1938 PA 3, as amended, MCLA 460.1 et seq.; 1969 PA 306, as amended, MCLA 24.201 et seq.; and the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure, 1954 Administrative Code, Supplement No. 54, R460.11 et seq.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that:

A. A public hearing will be held at 9:30 a.m. on September 8, 1977 in the offices of the Commission, Mercantile Building, 6545 Mercantile Way, Lansing, Michigan for the presentation of oral argument on the Company's Motion to Consolidate this matter with Case No. U-5457, its general rate case application which is scheduled for a Prehearing Conference at the same time and place. Any interested parties may attend the hearing and participate, subject to the provisions of the commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure.

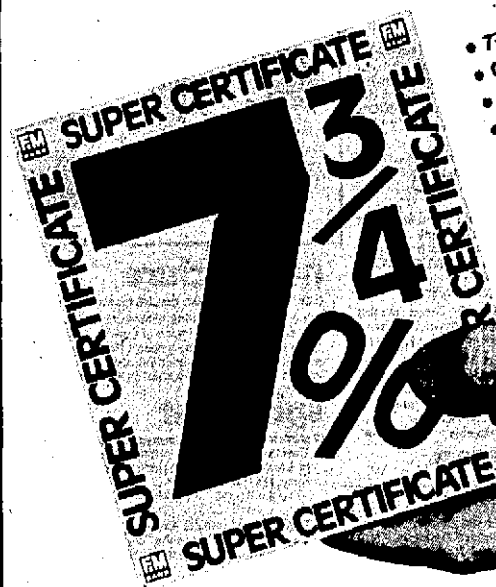

B. Any party seeking to intervene, in accordance with Rule 11 of the Rules of Practice and Procedure before the Commission, shall file with the Commission, on or before September 2, 1977, an original and 12 copies of a petition to intervene, together with proof of service upon Applicant.

Subparagraph (2) of said Rule 11 provides as follows:

"(2) A petition to intervene shall set out clearly and concisely the facts supporting the petitioner's alleged right or interest, the grounds of the proposed intervention, and the position of the petitioner in the proceeding, so as fully and completely to advise the parties and the Commission of the specific issues of fact or law to be raised or controverted." (Emphasis added)

The Commission will require strict compliance with the above-quoted rule.

Retreating from his Middle East invasion, Secretary of State Cyrus Vance must have the feeling he was, accidentally, starring in a Marx Brothers movie. In fairness to Cy, who is anything but a fool, he anticipated the circus before his departure. But as the Leader of the Free World bubbled with enthusiastic optimism, the Secretary had to go through with the charade.

The first act was underway before Vance departed, consisting of President Carter's disillusionment with Israeli Premier Menachem Begin, and then an interview with "Time." The first resulted from one of those mixups Jimmy has almost turned into an art form: Carter finished his meetings with Begin convinced the latter was behind the American program 1,000 per cent. Begin left 1,000 per cent in favor of what he understood to be the American program: let the Middle East locals work it out, and no imposed settlement.

Then Begin acted brazenly: returning to Israel, he legalized three Jewish settlements in the formerly Jordanian occupied West Bank. (Contrary to journalistic wisdom, Jordan does not have residual sovereignty over the West Bank — its armies seized the area in 1947-48). Carter was annoyed. Begin had promised to restrain new settlements in Sinai. Begin pointed out these were not new settlements, and the President admitted he forgot to include existing settlements. Since Begin is Premier of Israel, not a foreign affairs aide to President Carter, it's hard to see why the Israeli should be blamed for lousy American negotiating techniques.

Probably still riled at Begin's literal-mindedness, the President then had a backgrounder with a clutch of "Time" correspondents. In which he clearly, "titled" against Israel and for an imposed settlement.

A man less loyal than Vance would have defeated to the joys of the Riviera and rested while the dust settled, but doggedly he headed for Egypt and that jolly gangster, President Anwar Sadat. "Relax," Sadat indicated, "it's in the bag. The Israelis won't go to a meeting where the PLO is officially represented, so let's hold a preliminary foreign minister's meeting of Egypt, Syria, Jordan and possibly Lebanon. The PLO can't field a foreign minister, so we can bypass that procedural quagmire and get the negotiations moving." Very

This Bike Route Begs For Binoculars

Pack a swimsuit and binoculars for a scenic 123-mile bicycle trip past Lake Huron's white sandy beaches and picturesque old lighthouses, plus limestone quarries resembling the moon's surface and the cascading water of Lower Michigan's only waterfall, Ocqueoc Falls, near Rogers City.

The route follows US-23 between Alpena and Rogers City, detours to beautiful Presque Isle Harbor via country roads, then travels inland through forested vacationland and rolling farm country via world famous U.S. Steel's Limestone operations at its Calcite Quarry in Rogers City are the world's largest and can be viewed by leaving US-23 at BR-23 and traveling a half-mile north to Quarry View. This lookout station is staffed by a guide in summer and a picnic table and restrooms are available to visitors. The quarry, five miles long and three miles wide, resembles a vast wasteland similar to the moon's surface. Harbor View on the lakefront in Rogers City gives bikers a chance to see Great Lakes ships being loaded

There is a campground adjacent to the falls, and kids and adults alike get a kick out of diving under the cascading water.

Leaving M-88 at Millersburg road, the route continues through Millersburg and Hawks via CR-638, CR-451 and CR-634 before rejoining M-45 at Posen. Most of CR-638 traverses forestland dotted with lakes and resort cottages. The rest of the trip to Posen is along miles of cornfields.

There is a community park with a swimming hole at Millersburg. Just southwest of Posen, Fletcher County Park offers swimming, picnicking and camping. To reach Fletcher Park, leave M-45 at Maple Lane road and travel west one mile to Leer road, then go north another mile.

At the intersection of Maple Lane and Leer, there is a prehistoric sinkhole — a pit about 150 feet deep formed by the interaction of water with limestone. There are other sinkholes in the area. Most are on private property and permission must be obtained from the owner before trying any "sinkhole searching."

Following M-45 south to the intersection of M-32, bikers will find another delightful resting place at the park in Long Rapids. From the M-45 and M-32 intersection, it is just 13 miles east to Alpena.

Motels and campgrounds are situated along the route, and bikers should have no trouble finding parks for rest stops. Bicyclists should pace themselves according to their ability. The League of American Wheelmen estimates the average bicyclist can cover 35 to 50 miles a day with ease. A card and pamphlet containing bicycle safety tips are available free at all Automobile Club of Michigan offices.

more county roads and M-45, M-68 and M-32. For a 75-mile trip covering just the eastern portion of the route, bikers can use M-45 to link up with US-23 and M-32.

The most scenic stretch of pedaling is at Presque Isle Harbor, where deer often cross the road to flee into woods that stretch to Lake Huron's shore.

Bikers will be glad they packed swimsuits and binoculars at the sandy beach and old lighthouse which can be climbed for a breathtaking view of sailboats anchored in the harbor's clear blue water.

The lighthouse is reached either by leaving US-23 at Grand Lake road and going north to County road 405 — a distance of about 13 miles — or by leaving US-23 at CR-638 and traveling east seven miles. CR-638 is gravel for about two miles, but it is well-graded and the forest views are worth the trip.

The Old Presque Isle Lighthouse, built in 1840 when the harbor was a busy Great Lakes port, now is a museum, and the restored light keeper's cottage and light are open to the public. A climb up the lighthouse's hand-chiseled stone stairs is rewarded by a panoramic view of blue water and lush green forests.

About a mile north is the now-automated U.S. Coast Guard Lighthouse, built in 1871. Its grounds make up a county-owned park where bikers can picnic and rest.

Presque Isle Harbor is 23 miles north of Alpena and 20 miles south of Rogers City. Both Alpena and Rogers City boast beautiful municipal beaches and city parks, and their location in the midst of huge limestone deposits has made them with limestone from mountains of the crushed rock. Limestone is a basic material in the production of Portland cement, and Huron Portland Cement Co. at Alpena is the largest cement plant in the world.

While in Alpena, also visit the Wildfowl Sanctuary, where a kiddie buys corn from a machine to feed the birds, and the Jesse Besser Museum, named for the industrialist who developed the first concrete block machine.

The museum has an Avenue of 1890 Shops inside, and outside a fence made of iron ore and a bow anchor, both taken from the steamer Pewabic, which sank off Thunder Bay Island in 1885. Three 19th Century buildings have been moved to the museum grounds and are being restored.

Both loops of the bike tour include the farming community of Posen on M-65, where a potato festival is held every September. Spud road is located just a mile east of town.

Bikers who take the complete circle tour extending to Rogers City, then west and south on M-68, see Lower Michigan's only waterfall — Ocqueoc Falls.

TO THE CUSTOMERS OF MICHIGAN GAS UTILITIES COMPANY

On June 10, 1977, Michigan Gas Utilities Company (the Company) filed an application, with supporting testimony and exhibits, with the Michigan Public Service Commission (the Commission) in Case No. U-5487 requesting authority to increase its annual revenues by approximately $5,171,913 and for authority to adopt the Commission Staff's recommended standardized purchased gas adjustment clause in place of the Company's present Rule 16.

The Company is a Michigan corporation with principal offices at 888 South Telegraph Road, Monroe, Michigan, and is engaged in the purchase, transmission, distribution and sale of natural gas to approximately 92,000 customers in southern and western Michigan.

The Company represents that its present gas rates are based upon the Commission's Opinion and Order in Case No. U-4612 dated November 27, 1974, utilizing a test year consisting of the 12 months ended May 31, 1974. The Company represents that since November 27, 1974, its cost of service have continued to rise because of (i) increased costs of gas resulting from increases from its suppliers; (ii) increased wages and other labor costs; (iii) increased costs of material and supplies; (iv) increased operating expenses and (v) increased costs of capital including increased costs of long-term debt and earning requirements on common equity. In addition, the Company represents that it has been required to make continuing capital expenditures for the construction of necessary facilities for the transmission and distribution of gas. The Company further represents that common stock and long-term debt resulting in proceeds of approximately $14,500,000 have been issued by it since the May 31, 1974 test year and substantial additional financing will be required by the Company in the five-year period immediately ahead.

The Company represents that under its existing gas rates it is confronted with a significant decline in its earnings in relation to its property and investment in the gas business as a result of the increase in cost of gas and increases in taxes, wages and fringe benefits, and other costs, including capital costs. The Company states that during the past two years it has been confronted with the serious problem of meeting continually rising costs and adding expensive non-revenue producing plant, with only modest growth in customers. The Company states that in order to establish rates in these proceedings which will be just and reasonable for a future period it is essential that such rates be based upon a normalized test year using end of test year results which will reflect the material changes currently occurring in the Company's gas business.

The Company represents that, in order to enable it to maintain the financial integrity of its securities and to finance its continuing construction program, the 12.5% rate of return on common equity authorized by the Commission in its Opinion and Order dated November 27, 1974 in Case No. U-4612 should be increased to between 14.0% and 14.5%. The Company represents that increases in its present natural gas rates which will produce additional revenues on an annual basis of at least $5,171,913 based on the Company's normalized gas operations for the 12 months ended March 31, 1977, are required in order to raise and maintain for a reasonable period into the future the Company's rate of return on common equity at the level of 14.5%.

The Company further represents that its present purchased gas adjustment clause (Rule 16, M.P.S.C. No. 5) is similar to, but somewhat different from the standardized purchased gas adjustment clause recommended by the Commission Staff in its report entitled "Staff Study of Purchased Gas Adjustment Clauses" dated May 12, 1976. The Company states that it has reviewed the Staff Study and agrees in the main with the recommendations made therein and, accordingly, requests authority to adopt the Commission Staff's recommended standardized purchased gas adjustment clause in place of its present Rule 16.

In addition, the Company proposes to adopt a new paragraph F under existing Rule 16, Metering and Billing (M.P.S.C. No. 5), providing for a $10 charge for restoring service to a customer whose service has been discontinued for nonpayment of bills or for any other breach of the Company's rates, rules and regulations.

Although the Company is not presently filing a motion or application for an immediate interim rate increase, it anticipates that if it appears that a final order in this case may not be issued by the beginning of the 1977-78 heating season it may then file a timely motion for an interim rate increase, and reserves the right to do so.

Since the issue of rate design and charges is to be a subject of the hearing, the Commission desires that this hearing be noticed as also being Phase III of Case No. U-4685 (proceedings on the Commission's own motion to inquire into the regulations and procedures of gas and electric utilities pertaining to centrally metered customers, including reselling customers, and to provide for appropriate standards and rates for centrally metered gas and electric utility service) as it relates to gas service rendered by the Company.

The Company also has on file with the Commission an application for accounting and ratemaking authority for the deferral and amortization of the income tax effects of accrued utility revenue and property taxes assessed applicable to future periods (Case No. U-5447 filed on June 3, 1977). On July 1, 1977, the Company filed a Motion to Consolidate Case No. U-5447 with the instant proceedings and oral argument on the Motion will be heard on September 8, 1977, the date hereinafter scheduled for the Prehearing Conference in the instant proceedings.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN BY THE MICHIGAN PUBLIC SERVICE COMMISSION THAT:

A. Special hearings for the purpose of taking statements and testimony of any interested persons desiring to be heard on this matter will be held as follows:

Monroe August 30, 1977 at 1:30 PM and 7:30 PM in the City Council Chambers, City Hall, 120 S. Macomb St.
Benton Harbor September 1, 1977 at 1:30 PM and 7:30 PM in the City Commission Chambers, 200 Wall Street.

B. A prehearing conference will be held at 9:30 AM on September 8, 1977, in the offices of the Commission, Mercantile Building, 6445 Mercantile Way, Lansing, Michigan for the purpose of exploring and, if possible, agreeing upon matters which will expedite this proceeding including, but not limited to, the following:

1. Determining the parties to the proceeding, the nature of their appearances and the positions they are taking in the proceeding, as well as the facts they intend to controvert or give evidence of, all in accordance with the provisions of Rule 11 of the Rules of Practice and Procedure Before the Commission.
2. Simplifying and defining the issues in this proceeding.
3. Obtaining admissions, as to, and stipulations of facts not remaining in dispute, the authenticity of documents, and matters of public record.
4. Determining the number and identity of witnesses.
5. Specifying the schedule for the exchange of proposed and written testimony, and the reduction of oral testimony to written form.
6. Establishing procedures for the hearing.
7. Specifying a further schedule of dates of hearing.
8. Considering any other matters that may aid in the orderly conduct of the hearing and the disposition of the proceeding.

C. Public hearings for the purpose of introducing the previously filed evidence and any corrections thereto into the record and commencing cross examination of the Company's witnesses will begin at 9:30 a.m. on September 28, 1977 in the offices of the Commission, Mercantile Building, 6445 Mercantile Way, Lansing, Michigan and shall continue thereafter from day to day or on such adjourned dates as the presiding officer may set until the matter has been fully heard.

D. The Commission, on its own motion, will commence an investigation and hearing on August 30, 1977 into the existing rates, charges, revenue deficiencies or excesses, services, practices, procedures and operations of the Company and the investigation and hearing will not necessarily be confined to matters contained in the application but will include all matters pertaining to the reasonableness and justice of the rates, charges, operations and practices as may be necessary to enable the Commission to determine whether the existing or proposed rates and charges are unreasonable and excessive or inadequate and should therefore be increased, reduced or altered.

E. Any party seeking to intervene, in accordance with Rule 11 of the Rules of Practice and Procedure Before the Commission, file with the Commission, on or before September 2, 1977, an original and 12 copies of a petition to intervene, together with proof of service upon Michigan Gas Utilities Company.

Subparagraph (2) of said Rule 11 provides as follows: "(2) A petition to intervene shall set out clearly and concisely the facts supporting the petitioner's alleged right or interest, the grounds of the proposed intervention, and the position of the petitioner in the proceeding, so as fully and completely to advise the parties and the Commission of the specific issues of fact or law to be raised or controverted." (Emphasis added)

The Commission will require strict compliance with the above-cited rule.

F. THE INCREASES DESCRIBED IN THIS NOTICE HAVE BEEN REQUESTED BY MICHIGAN GAS UTILITIES COMPANY. THE MICHIGAN PUBLIC SERVICE COMMISSION MAY EITHER GRANT OR DENY THE REQUESTED INCREASE, IN WHOLE OR IN PART, AND MAY GRANT A LESSER OR GREATER INCREASE THAN THAT REQUESTED, AND MAY AUTHORIZE A LESSER OR GREATER RATE FOR ANY CLASS OR CLASSES OF SERVICE THAN THAT REQUESTED.

G. Michigan Gas Utilities Company shall, on or before September 8, 1977, serve upon each party seeking to intervene a copy of its application, the written direct testimony of its proposed witnesses and its proposed exhibits as filed with the Commission. Proof of service shall be filed with the Commission on or before September 26, 1977.

A summary of the proposed rate increases, by classes and their impact upon the various classes of service offered by Michigan Gas Utilities Company, is set forth below.

Toyota Recalls

134,000 Cars

From 1970-71

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Toyota Motor Sales, U.S.A., says it will recall about 134,000 Corolla and Mark II model cars produced during 1970 and 1971.

A company spokesman said a joint investigation with the National Highway Traffic Safety Commission found that the neutral start switch on the floor-mounted automatic transmission could short circuit, causing smoke in some cases.

SJ Twp. Tables
Lot Split Plan

St. Joseph township planners last night tabled a lot split proposed for conversion of a former highway department garage into a furniture store at Hilltop road and South State street.

Planners also said they want more details before making any recommendation on two proposed buildings that would contain 10 apartments at 596 West Napier avenue.

The lot split request is for about one acre presently owned by the St. Joseph Improvement Association. Planning Commission Chairman Charles Garlinger said the split was tabled because the commission was not provided with a legal description of the property from which the one acre would be split.

Thomas and Jo Ann Schroeder, owners of the Something of Value store at Stevensville, have proposed to buy the former garage and about one acre and convert it into a retail furniture outlet. They also would require rezoning from light industrial to a retail designation.

The improvement association owns a total of 4.1 acres at Hilltop and South State. Several planners in informal discussion said they thought the tract was too valuable to be split for retail purposes.

The apartment proposal was presented by Dan Shoemaker of Flister and Clements Realtors representing James Fulton, of Bridgman, who is seeking a permit to build apartments on the vacant property on the north side of Napier, east of Miami road in Napier.

Garlinger said the preliminary plan lacks details on number of parking spaces and driveway dimensions. The land is presently zoned for multi-family dwellings.

carrying a knife, Bates reported.

A second station attendant, Kyle Vaughn, 17, of 3918 Red Arrow highway, Coloma, was working outside the building when the robbery occurred, the officer said.

Bates said the attendants described both bandits as in their 20's.

Troopers

Seek Man

BUCHANAN — State police of the Niles post were continuing to search today for a Detroit area man who, they said, escaped from troopers yesterday afternoon east of Buchanan.

Police said a man identified as Don Ison, 28, believed from the Detroit area, escaped from troopers about 1:30 p.m. while at the Rynearson apartment development on Rynearson road. Attempts to track down the man by several area police departments and a tracking dog failed, police said.

Police said Ison is wanted by Farmington Hills police for allegedly violating parole. Police had taken the man into custody on the parole violation warrant.

Stocks Slide
Again

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market added to its recent losses with a moderate decline today.

The Dow Jones average of 30 industrials gave up nearly 2 points in early trading.

Losers took a 3-2 lead over gainers among New York Stock Exchange-listed issues.

Analysts said the market was still suffering from concern over rising interest rates and fears of a marked slowdown in the growth rate of the economy.

The Commerce Department today projected significantly slower growth of the Gross National Product in the third quarter than in the second.

On Tuesday the Dow Jones industrial average dropped 4.85 to a 19-month low of 888.28.

Losers outnumbered gainers by a 3-2 spread on the NYSE.

Big Board volume reached 15.34 million shares, against 15.75 million on Monday.

The NYSE's composite index lost 20 to 53.33.

On the American Stock Exchange, the market value index was off .59 at 118.27.

OFF A BIT: Stock market Tuesday declined slightly, abandoning a rally attempt begun late Monday. Dow Jones average, up 3.43 points Monday, dropped 4.85 points to new 19-month low of 888.28. Losers outnumbered gainers 3 to 2 on New York Stock Exchange. Volume there was 15.34 million shares, against 15.75 million Monday. (AP Wirephoto)

Benton Told Of Bonding

A developer of the Pipestone mill told Benton township trustees last night the amount of a township bond issue sought for site improvements has been reduced by $1 million and that Sears and J.C. Penney Co. hope to be open for business in the mill by August, 1978.

Meyer C. Weiner, president, Meyer C. Weiner Co., Oak Brook, Ill., said the $2.5 million earlier requested to pay for roads and utilities has been reduced to $1.5 million. This would cover extension of primary roads to the district and drainage. Weiner said developers would pay for other improvements, such as installation of secondary streets inside the district.

While revealing plans by Sears and Penney's, Weiner said negotiations are proceeding with about 60 other firms and the project when completed will boost the township's tax base by more than $80 million. Supervisor Kathryn Sirk said Sears and Penney's have signed leases.

Benton trustees were still skeptical over the township issuing a $1.5 million bond issue but agreed to seek more information at a meeting with representatives of William C. Roney and Co., which has a stock brokerage office in St. Joseph and other cities over Michigan, Indiana and Ohio. Agreement came on the third of three board votes.

Meyer Weiner and his son, Joshua, a partner, asked the board to work with Roney and Co. to help secure the loan through special assessment bonds. Present from Roney were Thad Obuchowski, manager, municipal bonding department, Detroit; and Harold S. Green, general partner, Kalamazoo office.

The Roney officials stressed lower interest at 5 1/2 to 6 per cent through bonds, estimated repayment time at from 15 to 25 years and safety, saying repayment of such bonds has not been defaulted in Michigan in more than 40 years.

They said the full faith and credit of the township would back the loan. They said if the loan were defaulted, the township would have a lien on the property.

They said the township would obtain the loan by creating a special assessment district and issuing the bonds. The bonds would be repaid by owners of the development's real estate.

The board voted three times on motions regarding the bonding.

The board first acted on a motion to table a request for bonding and meet with Roney officials. This ended in a 3-3 tie and was ruled defeated. The motion was opposed by Treasurer Ken Malkin and Trustees Margaret Criswell and Nora Jefferson. Support was from Supervisor Sirk, and Trustees Dave Hamner and Arnold Leonard. Clerk Larry Trail had stepped out of the room during the vote.

Trustee Criswell said the vote was improper because no original motion had been made requesting the bonding. Malkin then moved that the board deny any bonding for the project. This was defeated 4-3. Malkin was joined by Trail, who returned, and Miss Criswell.

A third vote simply to meet with Roney representatives was approved 6-0, with Malkin abstaining.

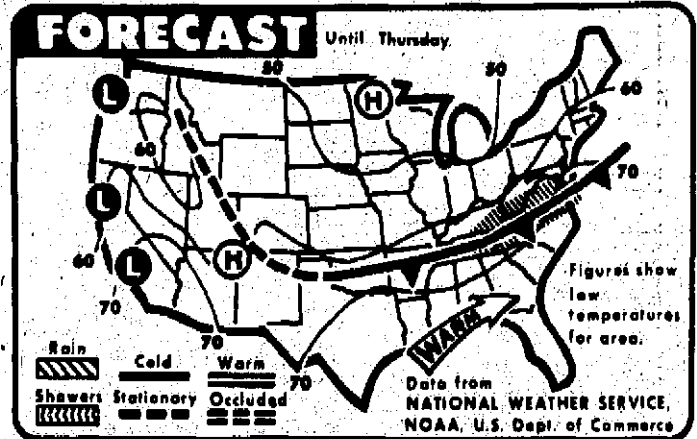

Board members questioned financial aspects, including prospects of default on loan payments, and the effect of such a bond issue on the township's legal power to bond projects.

No date was scheduled for Roney officials to meet with board members.

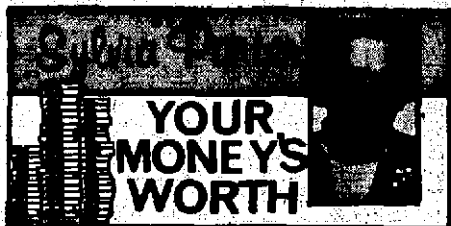

The board accepted the audit for two years, ending March 31, 1977, following a report by Andrew Schmidtman, certified public accountant. It was reported that while expenditures last year exceeded revenue by $10,000, the result would have little effect on the township's finances, termed good. The $10,000 deficit was reported small compared to the total $1.7 million general fund budget, and in other years, there are surpluses that make up the difference.

The board approved a used merchandise and auctioneers license for Steve Kenney at 1085 Territorial road.

The board in a public hearing set 10 years as the payment period for the resurfacing of Urbandale avenue. Residents along the street petitioned for the project to cost $33,050. The cost will be $6.66 per linear foot for residents and $2 for the township.

TODAY'S WEATHER MAP: Sunny and mostly mild weather is forecast today from the northern Rockies into the Northeast. Warm to very warm weather is expected for the South and West. (AP Wirephoto)

PLANNING YOUR RETIREMENT

Single, In Your 20s Or 30s
You're a bachelor, in your late 20s or early 30s, earn $22,000 a year as an office equipment salesman, have a savings account of $12,000 and try to save at least $1,000 a year. You live at a fairly high standard, own a $7,000 sports car, a sophisticated stereo system and rent a summer cottage which you share with three other singles. You, too, are living the good life and way, way down on your list of priorities is planning for your retirement. But you could not be more short-sighted.

Even at a "modest" inflation rate of 5 per cent annually, a marketbasket of goods and services costing $8,500 today would cost $17,246 a mere 20 years from today. And while you expect to continue working for another three or more decades, the fact is the average retirement age for men has been steadily falling. Either by choice or because older men have been pushed out of the labor force, the number of men age 65 or older in the labor force has since 1940 plunged from 42 to 22 per cent.

Now is the RIGHT TIME for you to set up some sort of plan that will produce income for you in retirement. And as one part of your plan, top account executives of Merrill Lynch, the world's largest stock brokerage firm, suggest an Individual Retirement Account to help you defer taxes on a portion of your earnings. Your employer has no retirement plan; thus, you're eligible for this magnificent tax shelter; it's easy to do; and the amount you can put into your IRA each year will be increased by Congress over the years ahead.

As of today, you can put up to a maximum of $1,500 of your annual income into an IRA and deduct this total from your gross income, before taking any standard or itemized deductions.

BRYNNER: Some hair way back when

A Long, Long Time Ago Yes, Yul DID Have Hair

Q: I read that Yul Brynner claims his bald-as-a-billiard-ball head dates back to when he did "The King and I" the first time on the Broadway stage more than 25 years ago. I saw that show and don't remember him bald. Am I crazy? — P.C., Lawrence, N.Y.

A: Brynner's memory is a little faulty. He had hair in that show. Although, truth to tell, he was losing it.

FUN AND FITNESS: If you're looking for actor Bruce Dern, try the UCLA running track in Westwood any morning and look for a pack of coeds. Bruce has taken to jogging with the UCLA all-girl running team and they all think he's terrific. In Hollywood they say the only reason Dern isn't a major star like Redford or Newman is that he has never played a "love scene on film."

publisher of Rolling Stone magazine.

MY SON, THE POL: Adam Nimoy, the young son of Leonard "Mr. Spock" Nimoy, is spending the summer in Washington working for House Majority Leader Tip O'Neill. And Gregory Peck's handsome son, Carey, is working for Sen. Claiborne Pell (D-Rhode Island). Young Peck plans to return to California to run for Congress.

FAIR DEAL: Plastic surgeon Benito Rish shows prospective facelift clients the before and after photographs of a woman who looks quite familiar. She certainly should. The photographs are of Hedy Lamarr, who got a free facelift from Dr. Rish in exchange for allowing him to take before and after pictures.

Robin Adams Sloan welcomes questions from readers. While Sloan cannot provide individual answers, questions of general interest will be used in the column. Write to Robin Adams Sloan, care of this newspaper.

Now See Here! BY BERT BACHARACH

DO YOUR REMEMBER: The "knock-knock" craze; pig-latin; plus-four knickers; revolving ceiling fans; "soul kisses"; punchboards; Ouija boards; bladders; marbles (moon ag-les, purties); and the "talking machine" you had to rewind after each record?... FOLKLORE: An itchy upper lip means someone will be kissing you; or that it will be someone short if the lower lip itches... LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) is always the one in a group who makes friends; social contacts and gets everyone in a good mood... Item for a Lull-in-Conversation: "In former times, rubrics were used for medicinal purposes and were thought to cure inflammation of all kinds. They were used in powder form and mixed with wine and honey to make liquid medicine." Graphologists say that larger-than-normal handwriting indicates logic and business ability.

MR. TWEEDY

by Ned Riddle

"THE CLUB OWNER REFUSES TO HAVE THE PIANO TUNED SO THEY ALL PLAY OFF-KEY ALL EVENING. ISN'T THAT HILARIOUS?"

INSOMNIA CURE from West Hollywood's Cock 'n' Bull: Put four lumps of sugar in a large glass with four drops of essence of cloves, add half pint of strong ale and a wineglass of good brandy. (And you should be asleep in minutes!)... Beauty Hint from Elke Sommer: For a luscious look, dust your lips with dry face powder; then brush your favorite shade of liquid cheek rouge on. Blot only the top lip... Sudden Thought: You never get a second chance to make a good first impression... Keeping Trim: Sit in a straight-backed chair with feet wrapped around chair legs and twist body 90 degrees without moving hips. Great for the waistline... Famous Last Words: "It just couldn't be twins — they just don't happen in either of our families."
